

Library of
The University of North Carolina

COLLECTION OF
NORTH CAROLINIANA

ENDOWED BY JOHN SPRUNT HILL
of the Class of 1889

This book must not be taken from the Library building.

VOL. X, No. 1

OCTOBER, 1921

The

Alumni Review

The University of North Carolina

CAMERON AVENUE LOOKING WEST FROM THE LAW BUILDING

OUR OLDEST LIVING ALUMNUS
BUILDING OPERATIONS ARE UNDER WAY
FOOTBALL OUTLOOK IS PROMISING
UNIVERSITY ADDS NEW FACULTY MEMBERS
PRESIDENT COX TO THE ALUMNI
THE PROPOSED ALUMNI CONSTITUTION

Murphy's Hotel

Richmond, Virginia

*THE most modern, largest and best located Hotel in Richmond, being on direct car line to all Railroad
Depots.*

*THE only Hotel in the city
with a garage attached. . . .*

Headquarters for Carolina
Business Men

JAMES T. DISNEY, President

OPERATED ON EUROPEAN PLAN

The Big Thing In College

as in life is THE START.
Start off with a life insurance policy. It is no longer a luxury but a necessity to the college man.

FIRST: Place protection on your life while you are young and able to get it.

SECOND: Insure your education.

THIRD: Create early
the habit of saving.

You have faith in your
State and its enterprises. Well, keep your business at home, and insure with

The
University Agency, Inc.
JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY

J. W. Umstead, Jr., Pres.
W. H. Andrews, Jr., Sec. and Treas.

AGENTS

B. C. Brown	I. H. Butt
J. D. Dorsett	P. A. Reavis, Jr.
	W. D. Harris

"Individual Service to Carolina Men"

WHY NOT MAKE YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO
THE ALUMNI LOYALTY FUND

By means of an Endowment Insurance Policy? The volume of "bequest insurance" is growing by leaps and bounds. It's the safest and surest way of making a bequest. Policies from $250 to $50,000 may be had in the

Southern Life and Trust Company

HOME OFFICE

"The Multiple Line Company" GREENSBORO, N. C.

CAPITAL $1,000,000.00

CAPITAL, SURPLUS AND PROFITS, $1,100,000
RESOURCES OVER $6,000,000

The First National Bank

OF DURHAM

A large, up-to-date banking institution privileged to be of State-wide service, always at the disposal of the University of North Carolina, its faculty, student-body and alumni in the transaction of their banking matters.

JULIAN S. CARR, President
W. J. HOLLOWAY, Vice President
CLAIBORN M. CARR, Vice President
SOUTHGATE JONES, Cashier
W. J. BROGDEN, Attorney

THE TRUST DEPARTMENT
OF THE
FIRST NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY
OF DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

OFFERS safety and service in handling of estates and trust funds and acts as executor, administrator, trustee, guardian and receiver.

FIRST NATIONAL TRUST CO.

JAS. O. COBB, President
W. J. HOLLOWAY Vice-President
C. M. CARR, Chairman, Board of Directors

JULIAN S. CARR, Vice-President
J. F. GLASS, Treasurer

Cy Thompson Says:

"Be Wise and Aetna-ize"

Representing the three affiliated AETNA companies, I am located in my same old quarters, opposite the campus, next to the Presbyterian church. I am now in position to serve you in every line of insurance.

Let me Aetna-ize your life; your wife; your income; your home; your household goods; your merchandise; your automobile—or go on your bond.

Cy Thompson's Insurance Service

AETNA LIFE INSURANCE CO., AETNA CASUALTY AND SURETY CO., AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE CO.,
of Hartford, Conn.

"WE OCCASIONALLY DEAL IN DIRT"

THE ALUMNI REVIEW

Volume X

OCTOBER, 1921

Number 1

OPINION AND COMMENT

The New Year

Thursday, October 6, begins the University's new year. In spite of the fact that it is the 128th, there is something new about it, something untried, unusual, that separates it from all the others that have gone before and that will follow after.

In his opening remarks to the faculty, President Chase emphasized wherein the difference between the new year and the last lay: namely, that whereas last year the University looked to North Carolina to come to its support and strengthen its hands for doing a great work, this year the State looks to the University, its trustees, its president, and its faculty, collectively and individually, to utilize to the limit the increased resources made available.

It is, distinctly, a new year of challenge, of opportunity, a year in which each member of the University has the chance to make his work distinctive, a year in which to do the job is to achieve a double success for the University and the State.

Think in the Terms of the University

In enlarging upon this theme President Chase urged the faculty to approach its work not only with an unusual determination to make it highly distinctive, but to think of it in the terms of the University as a whole and of the service which the University should render North Carolina—advice that is eminently sound and if followed will result in a more perfect functioning of the institution in the civilization which it was established to serve.

Opening of the University Delayed

Owing to an unprecedented drought and consequent failure of the water supply of Chapel Hill, President Chase, on September 20, announced the postponement for one week of the opening of the 128th session of the University and notified all prospective students to remain at their homes until October 4. In reaching this decision, President Chase was acting upon the advice of the local health authorities assisted by Dr. H. E. Miller, of the State Board of Health.

For the first time in the experience of the present generation there has been an almost total lack of rainfall since the middle of May, with the result that Chapel Hill has been unusually hot and until recently has been dry as a bone. Gardens and crops have simply withered away, hundreds of shrubs, particularly the hydrangeas, lilacs, and evergreens in the Arboretum and village yards, have died, and even pine and oaks in the forests along the roadside have succumbed.

Stroud's Creek, from which the present water supply is secured, has been reduced to the size of a mere branch, and the bed of the second creek two miles northeast of Chapel Hill on the road to Durham has not had a drop of water in it for the past six weeks. To meet the situation thus produced the trustees have authorized the laying of a temporary special six-inch pipe line to Morgan's Creek on the southwest with the expectation that this will relieve the famine until the autumn rains set in. Later, when the emergency is relieved, and increased funds are secured for the enlargement of the water supply and power plant, the temporary line will be made a part of the permanent installation and the intake and reservoir on Stroud's Creek will be abandoned.

In order to make up for the time lost on account of the delayed opening it is proposed to eliminate the holidays scheduled for the Thanksgiving vacation. The faculty also was instructed to report for duty on September 26 for its first meeting of the year, to hold departmental meetings, perfect committee plans, and take care of all preliminaries essential to getting underway without further loss of time when the session did open.

University Day

Wednesday, October 12, is destined to be another red letter day in the history of the University. It will mark the 128th birthday of the University and will not only be celebrated throughout the State and nation by enthusiastic alumni, but it will be made notable by a special celebration on the campus. In addition to the usual program carried out in Memorial Hall, ceremonies pertaining to the projection of the new building program will be carried out and the day will in a true sense, mark a new and highly important point in the life of Alma Mater.

For alumni in the towns and cities, both within the State and outside, THE REVIEW has no particular program to offer. It thinks best, however, that every local association possible should arrange a banquet or smoker and that a program should be carried out which would include a discussion and thorough understanding of the new task with which the University is confronted. North Carolina with its rapidly expanding life demands, and demands insistently, a more highly trained group of leaders as well as a general elevation of the intelligence of the whole mass of its citizenship. It looks to the University to render this great service and the sons of the University should, as President Cox indicates in his open letter, devote themselves anew to the support of the institution in making good in this great undertaking.

If any alumnus desires facts concerning any particular subject relating to the University, such as the new road, the Alumni Loyalty Fund, the Extension service, the need of a new hotel, the Graham Memorial Fund, or any other matter, a post-card to E. R. Rankin or any special officer will bring the desired information.

In addition to these subjects THE REVIEW wishes to emphasize again a suggestion made by the meeting of the secretaries of local associations held at the University last year: namely, don't spend too much of the approaching celebration in reminiscences, and when it comes to naming officers for the following year, select those who can be counted on to devote themselves to the larger program which the University is carrying out.

New Constitution Formulated

The attention of the alumni is drawn to another section of THE REVIEW in which is printed the proposed constitution for the General Alumni Association drafted by the special committee on alumni organization appointed by President Connor at the meeting of the Association in Gerrard Hall in June. Inasmuch as the Constitution is to become the working basis of the Association, it is highly important that before it is finally adopted it should be criticised by the members of the Association and that the final instrument should be such as to lend itself to the fullest promotion of alumni activities. With the hope that suggestions will be made the committee on organization calls for an expression of opinion and will consider any suggestions proposed and embody them if they seem workable in revised form in THE REVIEW for January.

The committee has been unable as yet to carry out the further duty laid upon it of securing an alumni secretary and is maintaining the office through the services of Mr. E. R. Rankin, managing editor of THE REVIEW.

Our Advertisers

At the beginning of its tenth year, THE REVIEW wishes to say its best thanks to the alumni and friends whose support has made possible its continued publication. It particularly wishes to thank that member of the editorial board who each year for nine years has sent a check of from $50 to $100 to insure the inclusion of additional pictures in special issues. And now that Lenoir Chambers has tied himself in with the Greensboro News and is no longer available for the athletic and other campus stories, it wishes to say how deeply he laid the publication and all of its readers under obligation to him for the past two years. To all of you, thanks, and then, thanks.

In this connection we take pleasure in bearing testimony to the assistance which our advertisers have rendered in enabling the management to keep THE REVIEW up to standard. Comment, news, alumni notes, advertising all have their part in a balanced program, and our advertisers have played their part handsomely.

In return, it is but fair that the readers of THE REVIEW—we mean you, Mr. Alumnus—should recognize this service. Consequently, when you have occasion to deal in such wares as our advertisers display in these pages, deal with them, and tell them why!

Announcement was made on June 14 of the marriage of Miss Helen Hume, formerly of Chapel Hill, and James C. Sanderson, of the School of Mines of the University of Minnesota, at Minneapolis.

NEW CAROLINA LAWYERS

Forty-two Carolina alumni received license to practice law in North Carolina at the examinations conducted in August by the Supreme Court. The total number to receive license was 77. The list follows:

Howard Brantley, Spring Hope; B. W. Blackwelder, Concord; N. R. Bass, Linneama; T. D. Cooper, Graham; J. L. Crowell, Jr., Concord; A. M. Carroll, Burlington; J. A. Dunn, Salisbury; P. B. Edmundson, Goldsboro; J. W. Foster, Chapel Hill; J. M. Hammerly, Charlotte; D. M. Hodges, Jr., Asheville; J. J. Harris, Bunn; B. B. Holder, Pink Hill; L. W. Jarman, Seven Springs; S. D. Johnson, Angier; J. Y. Jordan, Jr., Asheville; B. B. Liipfert, Winston-Salem; J. E. McMichael, Winston-Salem; D. P. McKinnon, Rowland; F. G. Miles, Warrenton; Chas. L. Nichols, Brevard; J. E. Norris, Holly Springs; Eric Norfleet, Roxobel; J. M. Oglesby, Concord; Neal Y. Pharr, Charlotte; J. G. Proctor, Lumberton; M. B. Prescott, Ayden; W. T. Polk, Warrenton; G. D. Robertson, Asheville; Chas. Seligson, Raleigh; W. W. Sledge, Weldon; W. T. Shaw, Raleigh; D. E. Scarborough, Hoffman; L. E. Teague, High Point; S. O. Worthington, Winterville; J. A. Wilkins, Raeford; G. L. Wimberly, Rocky Mount; J. M. Peace, Henderson; R. R. Hawfield, Monroe; A. H. Combs, Columbia; T. T. Barnes, Linneama, and P. B. Eaton, Yadkinville.

TO THE CAROLINA ALUMNUS

DEAR FELLOW ALUMNUS:

In two weeks it will be one hundred and twenty-eight years since William R. Davie with a mason's skill and a founder's vision laid the cornerstone of Old East Building. It will be one year since the alumni enlisted for the greatest single-year crusade in the whole history of public education. University Day last year was the trumpet-day of the great crusade.

University Day is at hand again. Strike hands today with the local president in his immediate preparations for a live alumni meeting. Where unorganized, organize! Where disorganized, reorganize! Where well-organized, better organize, not merely in official machinery, but also in the spirit and activity of more vital loyalties and larger services to meet the needs of the community and to make the University live in the hearts of the people.

On this great foundation day Alma Mater's sons all over the world renew in brotherhood their affectionate loyalty to her life and spirit. In staunch groupings on that glad day let us assemble to her side and be unto her the strength from which she builds her dream of a greater commonwealth.

Yours in filial fellowship,
CENTRAL ALUMNI COMMITTEE:

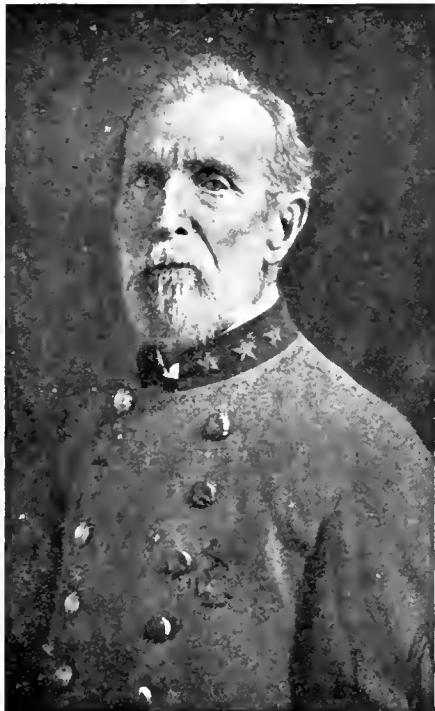

F. P. GRAHAM, '09,
E. R. RANKIN, '13,
L. R. WILSON, '99.

Chapel Hill, N. C., September 30, 1921.

Professor N. W. Walker, acting-dean of the School of Education of the University, delivered a series of lectures on high school administration at the annual institutes for high school teachers held at Clarksburg and Charleston, W. Va., early in September.

OUR OLDEST LIVING ALUMNUS

Succeeding to the mantle laid down last April by Dr. Alexander Boyd Hawkins (1845), of Raleigh, Colonel Alfred Holt Carrigan (1850), of Hope, Ark., is now at the age of 93 years the oldest living alumnus of the University of North Carolina. Colonel Carrigan has played a prominent and patriotic part in war and peace and he holds the high regard of his fellow citizens in Hempstead County, Arkansas, and of all who know him.

COL. A. H. CARRIGAN, CLASS OF 1850

Colonel Carrigan was born April 15, 1828, in Alamance County, near Graham, the son of W. A. Carrigan, Alamance County merchant and farmer, and Nancy Holt Carrigan. He was prepared for college at a private school in Hillsboro and came to Chapel Hill in the fall of 1846. In his days at Chapel Hill he was a college mate of James Johnston Pettigrew (1847), Matt W. Ransom (1847), and Kemp Plummer Battle (1849), and was a predecessor of Zebulon Baird Vance (1855). Shortly after his graduation in 1850, he emigrated to Hempstead County, Arkansas, where he has since made his home. At the outbreak of the Civil War he offered his services to the state and served gallantly through that fierce struggle as lieutenant-colonel of the 20th Arkansas Infantry, C. S. A.

At the close of the Civil War Colonel Carrigan returned to Hempstead County and resumed the pursuits of a planter. He has filled numerous positions of trust and responsibility. He was county judge for two terms. He has served both in the House and Senate of the General Assembly of Arkansas. He was a member of the Secession Convention of Arkansas and is now probably the only surviving member of any of the secession conventions of the southern states. He is a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church of Hope, Ark.

Colonel Carrigan married Mary E. Moore, in September of 1855 and of this union were born five children: W. A. Carrigan, Mineral Springs, Texas; A. H. Carrigan, Jr., Wichita Falls, Texas; Mary B. Carrigan, Dolph Carrigan and P. B. Carrigan, all of Hope, Ark. A. H. Carrigan, III, grandson and second namesake, of Wichita Falls, Texas, was first lieutenant of Company L, 142nd Infantry, U. S. A., and was killed in action in France in October of 1918. He was awarded posthumously the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre with Palm.

Ten thousand alumni hail Colonel Carrigan as chief of Alma Mater's clan and wish for him many more years of health and strength.

NEW CAROLINA PHYSICIANS

Thirty Carolina alumni received license to practice medicine in North Carolina in the examinations conducted by the State board of medical examiners in June at Raleigh. Dr. W. A. Kirksey, of the class of 1913, made the highest average grade on the examinations. Dr. E. H. Alderman, also of the class of 1913, came second, and Dr. R. C. Mitchell, of the class of 1917, made the third highest average. The total number of physicians to receive license was 49. The list of Carolina alumni follows:

Dr. W. A. Kirksey, Oxford; Dr. E. H. Alderman, Greensboro; Dr. R. C. Mitchell, Mt. Airy; Dr. A. C. Ambler, Asheville; Dr. V. S. Caviness, Cary; Dr. D. A. Cooper, Henderson; Dr. T. A. Folsom, Asheville; Dr. W. E. Futrell, Conway; Dr. J. N. Harney, Plymouth; Dr. W. L. Lambert, Moffitt; Dr. S. C. Nowell, Winfall; Dr. R. E. Perry, Mt. Olive; Dr. A. J. Smith, Black Creek; Dr. S. R. Taylor, Kinston; Dr. W. G. Wilson, Jr., Wilson's Mills; Dr. M. E. Baker, Leland; Dr. D. B. Cobb, Goldsboro; Dr. S. G. Corpening, Brevard; Dr. G. R. Frye, Statesville; Dr. K. B. Geddie, Rose Hill; Dr. J. J. Kirksey, Morganton; Dr. I. H. Litterloh, Sanford; Dr. Hugh Parks, Harmony; Dr. F. R. Robbins, Lenoir; Dr. Jas. E. Smith, Windsor; Dr. F. C. Smith, Louisburg; Dr. A. T. Thorp, Rocky Mount; Dr. F. R. Farthing, Boone; Dr. C. W. Millender, Asheville; Dr. M. A. Pittman, Ancon, Panama Canal Zone. The following alumni were granted license through reciprocity: Dr. F. O. Bell, Linden; Dr. John W. Dyer, High Point; Dr. Chas. S. Norburn, Acton.

NATIONAL GUARD OFFICERS

Carolina alumni who hold commissions in the reorganized N. C. National Guard include: Lt. Col. J. H. Manning, Kinston; Major G. K. Hobbs, Wilmington; 1st Lt. P. H. Gwynn, Jr., Reidsville; Capt. V. E. Everett, Plymouth; Capt. M. B. Fowler, Durham; Capt. A. L. Fletcher, Raleigh; Major W. B. Hunter, M. C., Gastonia; Maj. W. G. Craven, Q. M. C., Huntersville; Major J. V. McCougan, M. C., Fayetteville; Major J. E. Carter, Ord., Mt. Airy; Capt. B. S. Royster, Jr., Q. M. C., Oxford; Capt. H. C. Dockery, Jr., J. A. G. D., Charlotte; Capt. T. C. Guthrie, Jr., J. A. G. D., Charlotte.

BUILDING OPERATIONS ARE UNDER WAY

Cornerstone of First New Building to be Laid by Masons as in Case of Old East in 1793

Following the two-day meeting of the Trustee Building Committee of the University, at which Mr. Kendal, of McKim, Mead and White, was present, the following statement was given out to the press by President Chase concerning the building program:

Announcement was made today of the laying of the cornerstone, on the University's birthday, October 12, of the first of the new buildings provided for the institution by the action of the legislature last winter.

This building is one of the four dormitories to be erected on the class athletic field, on the east edge of the campus and near the Emerson stadium. The four will accommodate 120 students each and will be completed by the opening of the fall session of 1922, one year hence.

Grand Lodge of Masons to Officiate

The North Carolina grand lodge of Masons, with headquarters at Raleigh, will conduct the ceremonies. W. W. Willson, secretary of the grand lodge, has written President Chase that he would make an effort to get the organization out in full strength. The members will come over from Durham by automobile, assemble in the hall of the local Masonic lodge in the village, and then, having donned their full regalia, will march to Memorial hall preceded by a band of music and followed by the student body in procession. After the University Day exercises the whole company will go to the site of the new building for the cornerstone laying. When this is over, the Masons will be guests at a luncheon in Swain Hall.

Part of Program Almost Completed

Though this ceremony October 12 will mark the formal inauguration of the University's building program, work has been in progress all summer. Eight faculty houses, two of eight rooms and six of six rooms, are nearly finished; and six four-room houses for engineers, draughtsmen and other members of the construction force are well along toward completion. The grading of the mile-and-a-quarter railroad extension, leading from the present Carrboro terminus to the rear of the campus, is practically done, and the rails will have been laid within six weeks.

In a small village like Chapel Hill the labor situation is always a difficult one and for a construction enterprise as great as the one now facing the University it is necessary to import workmen. Before they come, however, means must be found to house them. So a labor camp has been built out on the Pittsboro road. This is capable of sheltering about 200 men.

Plans Ready for Proposed Buildings

The engineer and the architect of the University have all their plans ready, much of the foundation material is on the ground, and now that the final decisions have been made on the location, the size, and the type of the buildings, the work of construction may go ahead. McKim, Mead and White of New York have acted, and will continue to act, as consulting architects.

Two-Year Program Contemplated

It was a two-year program that the legislature laid down last winter in appropriating $1,400,000 for new buildings at the University. The money was to become available on the first of last July. The present schedule calls for the completion of four dormitories, the history and social science buildings (for classrooms), and the Swain Hall addition (for eating facilities) by next fall. The second year will see the erection of another class room building, the building for the law school, one more, and possibly, depending on the amount of money left in the appropriation, two more dormitories.

The Steele dormitory, built under the provisions of the old law giving the state architect jurisdiction over all state institutional buildings, will be ready for occupancy at the opening this fall.

JUSTICE A. L. FITZGERALD PASSES

Editor, ALUMNI REVIEW:

Under this cover I am enclosing two clippings that will interest you in common with all other University boys: one from the Reno Evening Gazette; a second from the Tonopah Times, both touching on the death of A. L. Fitzgerald of the class of 1862.

Knowing him as the only alumnus of the U. N. C. in Nevada except myself, I wish to assure you that all the good things said of him are true and many more might be enumerated. He has been a guest in my home and together we have labored in Masonic circles. He has honored the Hill during his residence in this state. Please see that due notice is given the University authorities of his passing and notice taken of his worthy career out in the world of strife and struggle. He was easily the most conspicuous man of his years in this state. Right well the University may accord him a high place among her heroic soldier dead and among her citizens of great accomplishment.

With loyalty to the Hill and all it means, I remain

Yours in the faith,
M. B. ASTON, '96.

Goldfield, Nevada, Sept. 1.

CAPTAIN WATSON A CRACK SHOT

Raleigh relatives of Captain William Randolph Watson, of Co. C, 50th Infantry of the American forces in Germany, have learned with great pride of his record as a marksman in the service, a shot who has won the championship in four armies.

Captain Watson is a nephew of Miss Hilliard Hinton and C. L. Hinton, of Raleigh, and a graduate in 1917 of the University of North Carolina, though a resident of Darlington, S. C. Recently he made the highest score for the best shot in the United States army, receiving a gold medal for his skill. He also took the prize for the best marksman in the British, French and Belgian armies and was given a gold fountain pen. His shooting is said to be marvelous.

Captain Watson often has visited here and is known to many college mates at the University. W. T. Bost in Greensboro News, Sept. 22.

FOOTBALL OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

A football team with splendid material has often turned out to be a failure through unsatisfactory coaching. And good coaching, for lack of proper human stuff to work on, has often led only to defeat. But competent coaching and good material together ought to bring victories, and at present Carolina seems to have both these prerequisites. Bill Fetzer is coach, with his brother Bob as assistant. Eight of the men who started in last year's Virginia game are back, in addition to other "letter men" who were substitutes in 1920 and several fast and husky youngsters from last year's freshman team. And Blount, the center of the champion 1919 team, has returned.

W. MCK. FETZER
Director of Athletics

Now, THE REVIEW is making no prophecies. Prophesy is dangerous in all things and in nothing more than in football. We do not know what our principal rivals for the South Atlantic palm have to offer. It may be an extraordinarily good year for them. There are some questions of eligibility that are not settled at this early date. One never knows what bad luck will befall in the way of injuries. All we venture to say is that, at the opening of the fall term, the football outlook is distinctly promising.

The coming of Bill Fetzer to the University, as athletic director, has put new hope into alumni and students alike. To begin with, his record of success begets confidence. At both Davidson and State College he got fine results, sometimes with indifferent material. Within two or three years his reputation as a coach spread all over the South, and it is said that many institutions sent in a call for his services.

Of course he knows the game. But that is only part of the story. He has the personal quality that puts fire and fighting spirit into the men he coaches, and makes them work together without shirking or jealousies. He is a native North Carolinian himself, and seizes instinctively, as strangers often find it hard to do, just the kind of leadership and the kind of training youths at Chapel Hill need. His achievement with the Carolina baseball team last spring gave a measure of his ability and sealed the confidence of the students in him.

Bob Fetzer is the ever-present assistant of his older brother. It has been said that the work of the one fits in with the work of the other as a hand fits a glove.

By the time this issue of THE REVIEW reaches its subscribers, the season's first game, with Wake Forest, will have been played. Next comes the Yale game at New Haven, October 8. The Yale game last year, though Carolina was defeated, was the bright spot in the 1920 record. The team put up a spirited fight and was highly praised by the football critics of the New York and Boston newspapers. The contest with State College comes Thursday, October 20, the big day of Fair Week, at Raleigh. Maryland is encountered at Baltimore Oct. 29, V. M. I. at Richmond Nov. 5, and Davidson at Winston-Salem, Nov. 12.

The great event of the season, the Thanksgiving Day game with Virginia, will take place this year on our home grounds. Two years ago eight thousand people came to Emerson field for the Virginia game. Ten thousand is the estimate for this year's crowd. The new hard-surface road from Durham will be open by then, making the trip an inviting one for automobilists. Arrangements have been made to erect temporary grandstands to take care of the overflow from the concrete stadium.

From last year's varsity and substitutes the following men are back: Lowe (captain), Morris, Shepard, Poindexter, Pritchard, Jacobi, McDonald, Hutchins, Pharr, McGee, Kernodle, Liipfert, Cochran, Tenney, and Griffith. Of the 1920 seniors there are: Doggett, Harmon, Murchison, Susman, Whedbee and Woodall. From the freshman team of a year ago are: Gillon, Pendergrass, Giersch, A. A. Johnston, Cates and Williamson, and from the sophomore team N. McN. Smith and Froneberger. Other candidates are: Fred Morris, W. L. Johnson, Pittman and Hammieut.

The squad has grown to sixty-five candidates since Coach Fetzer sent out the call for practice in early September. Four elevens have been made up; two of them have been sent into a scrimmage every afternoon, and after a little while have given place to the other two. All this is preliminary—a means of selection.

The drought has been a severe handicap to practice, for it has killed the grass and turned the field into an expanse of dry dust. One of the evening newspapers said the other day that the University gridiron seemed more suited to camels, inured to the hardships of the desert, than to human beings.

UNIVERSITY ADDS NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

At commencement last June and on two occasions during the summer President Chase has announced a number of important additions to the faculty for the coming year. The list of those who begin service at the University for the fall follows:

James Finch Royster, Ph.D., Kenan professor of English Philology. A.B. Wake Forest College, 1900; student, University of Berlin, 1902-03; Ph. D. University of Chicago, 1907; instructor in English, University of Colorado, 1904-1907; professor of English, University of North Carolina, 1907-1914; professor of English, University of Texas, 1914-21; Kenan professor of English, University of North Carolina 1921

Robert Diggs Wimberly Connor, Ph.B., Kenan professor of History and Government. Ph. B. University of North Carolina 1899. Superintendent of Schools, Oxford, 1902; principal Wilmington high school, 1902-04; Secretary, North Carolina Historical Commission, 1903-21; Kenan professor of History and Government, University of North Carolina, 1921

Louis Graves, A.B., Professor of Journalism. A.B. University of North Carolina, 1902; on staff of the New York Times, 1902-06; author of short stories in Atlantic Monthly, Asia, Saturday Evening Post, The Century, Harper's, The Metropolitan, The World's Work; professor of Journalism, University of North Carolina, 1921

Gustave Maurice Braune, C.E., Professor of Civil Engineering. Washington and Lee University, 1888-1889; C.E., Royal Polytechnical Institute, Dresden, Saxony, 1895; general engineering practice, 1896-1912; assistant professor Civil Engineering, University of Cincinnati, Sept. 1912-February 1914; associate professor of Civil Engineering and acting head of Civil Engineering department, January 1918-August 1921; professor and head of Civil Engineering department, University of North Carolina, 1921

Thornton Shirley Graves, Professor of English, A. B., Texas Christian University, 1906; Ph. B. University of Chicago, 1907; Ph. D. ibid., 1912; assistant professor of English, Texas Christian University, 1908-09; instructor in English, University of Washington, 1912-13; assistant professor and professor of English, Trinity College, 1915-21; professor of English, University of North Carolina, 1921

Claudius T. Murchison, Ph. D., Associate professor of Banking. A. B. Wake Forest College, 1911; assistant professor of Economics, Miami University, 1916-18; assistant professor of Economics, Hunter College, 1918-20; Ph. D. Columbia University, 1919; assistant professor of Economics, New York University, 1920-21; associate professor of Banking, University of North Carolina, 1921

Frank Carl Vilbrault, Ph.D. Associate professor of Industrial Chemistry. A. B. Ohio State University, 1915; A. M. ibid., 1916; assistant in General Chemistry, ibid., 1917-18; instructor in Industrial Chemistry, ibid., 1918-21; associate professor of Industrial Chemistry, University of North Carolina, 1921

Maurice Taylor Van Hecke, Ph. D., J. D. Associate professor of Law. Ph. B. University of Chicago, 1916; J. D. ibid., 1917; assistant professor of Law, University of West Virginia, 1920-21; associate professor of Law, University of North Carolina, 1921

Horace B. Anderson, M. D. Associate professor of Pathology; A. B. Wofford College, 1910; M. D. Jefferson Medical College, 1916; instructor in Pathology, ibid., 1916-1917; pathological intern, Pennsylvania Hospital, 1917-20; associate professor of Pathology, University of North Carolina, 1921

Harold D. Meyer, A. M. Associate professor of Sociology and Economics. A. B. University of Georgia, 1915; A. M. ibid., 1916; professor of Sociology and Economics, State Normal School (Georgia), 1916-21; associate professor of Sociology and Economics, University of North Carolina, 1921-

F. R. Flournoy, A. M. Assistant professor of History. A. B. Washington and Lee, 1905; A. M. Columbia University, 1912; instructor in History, ibid., 1916-18; Regional Economist, Department of State (Washington), 1918-21; assistant professor of History, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Ernest Lloyd Mackie, A.M. Assistant professor of Mathematics. A. B. University of North Carolina, 1917; A. M. Harvard University, 1920; instructor in Mathematics, ibid., 1920-21; assistant professor of Mathematics, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Martin K. Brooks, A. M. Instructor in Romance Languages. A. B. University of Kansas, 1911; A. M. ibid., 1912; instructor in French, University of Missouri, 1914-16; instructor in Spanish, California Polytechnic School, 1916-17; instructor in French, Harvard University, 1919-21; instructor in French, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Murat H. Roberts, A. M. Instructor in Romance Languages. A. B. University of Tennessee, 1915; instructor in Romance Languages, Lincoln Memorial University, 1915-16; professor of French, East Tennessee State Normal School, 1916-20; A. M. Princeton University, 1921; instructor in Romance Languages, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Harry Sylvanus Van Landingham, A. M. Instructor in French. A. B. Richmond College, 1912; A. M. ibid., 1916; instructor in Modern Languages, Fredericksburg State Normal College, 1914; Instructor in French, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Thomas James Wilson, III, Instructor in French. A. B. University of North Carolina, 1921; instructor in French, ibid., 1921-

Holmes V. M. Dennis, III, Instructor in Latin. A. B. Princeton University, 1918; A. M. ibid., 1919; instructor in Latin, University of North Carolina, 1921-

J. Fenton Daugherty, A. B. Instructor in Physics. A. B. Dickinson College, 1921; instructor in Physics, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Paul Reber Dawson, A. M. Instructor in Chemistry. A. B. Clark College, 1916; A. M. University of North Carolina, 1921; instructor in Chemistry, ibid., 1921-

Michael Arendell Hill, Jr., A. B. Instructor in Mathematics. A. B. University of North Carolina, 1920; instructor in Mathematics, ibid., 1921-

Charles Dale Beers, A. B. Instructor in Zoology. A. B. University of North Carolina, 1921; instructor in Zoology, ibid., 1921-

Homer Hoyt, Ph.D. Associate professor of Economics. A. B. University of Kansas, 1913; A. M. ibid., 1913; J. D. University of Chicago, 1918; Ph.D. ibid., 1918; instructor in Economics, Beloit College, 1917-1918; professor of Economics, Delaware College, 1919-20; associate professor of Economics, University of North Carolina, 1921-22

Harvey F. Janda, C.E. Associate professor of Highway Engineering, University of Cincinnati, 1916-18; assistant professor of Civil Engineering, ibid., 1918-21; associate professor of Civil Engineering, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Robert H. Wettach, LL.B. Assistant professor of Law. A. B. University of Pittsburgh, 1917; A. M. ibid., 1918; LL.B. Harvard, 1921; assistant professor of Law, University of North Carolina, 1921-22

John H. Bradley, Jr., A. B. Instructor of Geology. A. B. Harvard University, 1921; instructor in Geology, University of North Carolina, 1921-

Harry W. Crane, Ph.D. Associate professor in Psychology, A.B. University of Michigan, 1909; A.M. University of Michigan, 1910; Ph.D. University of Michigan, 1913; instructor in Psychology, ibid., instructor in Psychology, Ohio State University; assistant professor of Psychology, ibid., associate professor of Psychology, University of North Carolina, 1921

Miss Nell Blair, in charge of the Library Reading Room, Student at Martha Washington, 1910-1911; Montevallo 1911-1912; Institution de Essorts (Montreux, Switzerland), 1912-

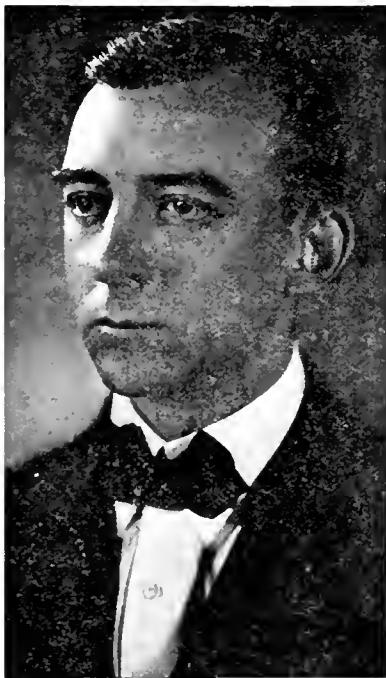

1913; assistant in San Francisco Public Library, 1915-1917; assistant in University of Minnesota Library, 1917-1920; student Pratt Institute Library School, 1920-1921.

Mr. H. A. Comer, General Secretary, Y. M. C. A.; B.S. Vanderbilt University, 1912; general secretary, Georgia School of Technology, 1912-1918; served in army two years; with the Y. M. C. A. in France five months after leaving army; state student secretary, Y. M. C. A., for Tennessee, 1920-21; general secretary, University of North Carolina, 1921-

PRESIDENT COX TO THE ALUMNI

FELLOW ALUMNI:

Let me use this opportunity to express my deep appreciation of the honor done me in selecting me as President of the General Alumni Association, and to assure you that my every effort will be to till worthily the post to which I have been called.

COL. ALBERT COX, CLASS OF 1904

stitutions it is the fountain head of the educational system of our State. Not alone then should we regard it for the pleasant memories of the times that there we dwelled, but should likewise consider it as a place from which ideals and the practical application of those ideals are daily issuing forth to surround our lives with material benefits and the happiness and satisfaction that thereof ensues. The University will achieve only so far as her sons and daughters desire such achievement obtained. What she is and what she does depends upon the attitude of us all. Her opportunities then are ours.

A great war has been fought and won; the peoples of the world are rapidly returning to normality. America stands upon an eminence in the eyes of the people of the world and a blinding glare of pitiless publicity lights up her every act. The peoples of the world, civilized and uncivilized, look to us for leadership. What shall that leadership be? Shall we be content to sit idly by secure in selfishness, or shall we rather with earnest effort fit ourselves for that leadership the world requires? The answer rests with us. We are Americans all, and will guide America's actions whether good or bad. The inspiration of education can best fit us for the obligations and opportunities about us. That education can best be obtained through the means of a larger and greater University. Let us one and all resolve during the months to come to give to the University in thought and word and action, the best that is in us and so help her attain the heights where she belongs. A cessation of effort or endeavor to carry on now means disaster, and disaster is unthinkable.

ALBERT L. COX, '04.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 5, 1921.

JUDGE ADAMS GOES ON SUPREME BENCH

Hon. W. J. Adams, for years a distinguished Superior Court Judge, has been elevated to the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the Hon. W. R. Allen. The appointment of Judge Adams gives universal satisfaction and makes the twenty-first alumnus of the University to sit on the Supreme Court of North Carolina, his predecessors being Judges Murphy, Toomer, Daniel, Battle, Pearson, Manly, Rodman, Diek, Settle, Dillard, Ashe, Russin, Davis, Avery, Cook, Shepherd, Clark, Walker, Manning and Stacy.

Judge Adams is a graduate of the class of 1881, one of the notable classes since the Civil War. Among the members of this class were the late Charles D. McIver, Dr. Robert P. Pell, former Congressman C. R. Thomas, Judge J. D. Murphy, J. Y. Joyner, Leroy Springs, F. B. Daney, N. J. Rouse, Dr. H. B. Battle, J. Alton McIver, A. Nixon, Dr. W. D. Pemberton, John M. Walker, and others who are well-known through the State and in other sections.

At its last meeting, the General Assembly, composed as it was of men of practical sense and vision, made possible the physical re-building of the University. Her alumni have the opportunity of bringing to the aid of their Alma Mater manifold and great opportunities. Consider her vast possibilities. As her material possessions are being increased, her sons and daughters should awaken to the realization of her educational power and its possibilities to the State. The beginning now so well made is an excellent augury for future development, but there should be no letting up in carrying out the expansion so well begun.

'Tis trite to call attention to the part played by education in the life of a people and the greatness of a State, but sometimes the simplest lessons are the hardest learned. To curtail or check such an educational development as we are now experiencing would prove a terrible calamity to the State by imperiling the training of her future leaders. The University is much more than a place where young men and young women may go for intellectual advancement. Standing as it does at the forefront of the country's educational in-

THE PROPOSED ALUMNI CONSTITUTION

In accord with the resolution passed by the General Alumni Association of the University in session in Gerrard Hall on Tuesday, June 14, 1921, the special committee on alumni organization then appointed submits the following tentative Constitution and By-Laws for the criticism of the members of the Association. In order that suggested changes may be properly considered, the committee calls upon the alumni of the University to submit in writing any desired changes to E. R. Rankin, Chapel Hill, N. C., who is acting as secretary of the committee. Immediate attention should be given to this matter as the committee desires to go over all suggestions in time to embody such of them as seem to it desirable for publication in the January issue of THE REVIEW.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

NAME

1. The name of this organization shall be the "General Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina."

ARTICLE II

OBJECTS

1. The objects of the Association shall be to promote the growth and influence of the University; to cultivate the bond of sympathy and mutual helpfulness between the University and its alumni; to make helpful the relation between alumni and students in local communities; to unite the alumni in the advancement of educational pursuits; and to maintain University ideals.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

1. Membership in the Association shall comprise: (1) active; (2) honorary.

2. The active membership shall consist of: (a) Graduates; (b) Former students who pursued courses leading to regular degrees; (c) Students of the summer law school.

3. The honorary membership shall consist of: (a) Trustees and ex-trustees; (b) Members and ex-members of the faculty; (c) Officers of the University.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

1. The officers of this Association shall consist of a president, a first vice-president, a second vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, and a board of directors.

2. The president, the first vice-president, and the second vice-president shall be elected by ballot, as provided in the by-laws.

3. The secretary and the treasurer, which offices may be filled by one and the same person, shall be elected by the board of directors.

4. The board of directors shall be appointed by the president, and shall consist of one representative from each congressional district within the State of North Carolina, and one representative from the alumni living beyond the confines of North Carolina.

5. The terms of office of the president and the vice-presidents, shall be one year and they shall be ineligible for re-election to succeed themselves.

6. No officer of the Association, except the secretary, and no member of the board of directors shall receive compensation. The secretary shall be paid a salary to be determined by the board of directors.

ARTICLE V

MEETINGS

1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held on Alumni Day of Commencement.

2. Special meetings may be called by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VI

AMENDMENTS

1. This constitution may be amended by two thirds vote of the duly accredited members in attendance at any annual meeting.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

DUTIES OF OFFICERS

1. It shall be the duty of the president to preside at all meetings of the Association and of the board of directors. He shall appoint the board of directors as provided in the constitution; he shall name all standing committees of the Association of which he shall be ex-officio a member; and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the constitution or the by-laws and are usually imposed upon such office.

2. The first vice president shall, in the event of the absence or disability of the president, perform the duties of the president, and shall be the personal representative of the president in that section of the State from which he is chosen.

3. The second vice-president shall, in the event of the absence or disability of the president and first vice president, perform the duties of the president, and shall be the personal representative of the president in that section of the State from which he is chosen.

4. The secretary shall be the executive officer of the Association and as such it shall be his duty: (a) To make and keep an official record of the transactions of the Association, and its board of directors; (b) To be the custodian of all papers and property of the Association, except such as are specified to be held by the treasurer; (c) To collect all assessments and dues, and deposit them to the credit of the Association; (d) To co-operate with all standing or special committees of the Association; (e) To give notice of regular or special meetings, and to send out blank ballots for elections as hereinafter prescribed; (f) To attend to the correspondence of the Association, and (g) To perform such other duties as may be outlined by the board of directors.

5. The treasurer shall have charge of the accounts of the Association and of all funds collected and deposited in the name of the Association, by the secretary. It shall be his duty: (a) To keep the funds which are not invested, in a bank or banks to be designated by the board of directors; (b) To disburse the funds of the Association as directed by the board of directors; (c) To take care of the investments of the Association; (d) To make a full and clear report to the annual meeting of the Association of all moneys received and disbursed.

6. The offices of secretary and treasurer, may, in the discretion of the board of directors, be filled by one person.

7. The secretary and the treasurer shall be bonded in such amount as the board of directors may determine.

8. The board of directors shall have general charge of the work of the Association and the individual members of the board are charged with the work of the Association in the districts they represent.

ARTICLE II

COMMITTEES

1. The president shall appoint by January 1st, of each year, a nominating committee of five, which committee shall render its report to the secretary of the Association on or before the 1st day of March of each year. This committee shall nominate two men for the office of president, and two men each for the offices of first vice-president and second vice-president; in making the nomination for first vice-president and second vice-president, the nominating committee shall provide for the election of a vice-president from each of the two great sections of the state, viz.: The eastern section and the western section.

2. The president shall appoint a committee of three members to canvas the votes cast in the election of officers.

3. The president shall appoint an auditing committee to audit the accounts of the secretary and of the treasurer.

ARTICLE III

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

1. There shall be an annual election for the offices of president, first vice-president and second vice-president. Voting shall be by printed ballot.

2. The polls shall be placed at such places as may be designated by the board of directors, and shall be open from the 1st day of May until noon on Alumni Day.

3. Only those members who have paid their dues for the fiscal year shall be entitled to vote.

4. The secretary shall mail to the members of the Association on or before the 1st day of May of each year, a printed ballot containing names of those nominated by the nominating committee, together with the names of those nominated through a petition signed by fifty paid-up members of the Association, such petition having been filed with the secretary on or before the 1st day of April.

ARTICLE IV DUES

1. There shall be two classes of active members, as follows: (a) Annual, who shall pay $1.00 per year; (b) Life, who shall pay $100.00.

ARTICLE V FISCAL YEAR

1. The official and fiscal year of the Association will close on June 30 of each year.

ARTICLE VI OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

1. The official publication shall be THE ALUMNI REVIEW.

ARTICLE VII LIFE MEMBERSHIP FUND

1. All moneys received from life memberships shall be invested only in such securities as are now, or which shall hereafter be authorized for the investment of trust funds under the laws of North Carolina. The principal of this fund shall be kept intact, and only the income thereof shall be expended in such manner as determined by the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

1. These by-laws may be amended by two-thirds vote of the members present at any annual or special meeting, but if voted upon at a special meeting, the membership must have had notice of the proposed amendment at least thirty days in advance of such meeting, by publication thereof in THE ALUMNI REVIEW or in such other manner as the board of directors may direct.

PROFESSOR COBB MEETS ALUMNI IN FOREIGN LANDS

Professor Collier Cobb reports upon returning from his investigations around the Pacific that he was constantly running into the field of labor of some Carolina man or woman who is a foreign missionary. First in the Fairbanks district of Alaska he met many of the friends of Fred Drane (1912), of Nenana, who was described by the Alaskans as a "good sourdough," the highest compliment they could pay him. In Japan he heard sung at Oita City the praises of W. A. Wilson (1889), now a missionary at Okayama; and there he also heard many good things about S. A. Stewart of Hiroshima. In China the first missionary he met was R. T. Bryan (1882), dean of American missionaries, upon whom the University has conferred a D.D.; and Mrs. Thomas A. Hearn (Mary Jarman, 1911), also entertained him there. After graduating at St. Luke's Hospital, Jacksonville, Florida, Miss Jarman went to China and established a training school for nurses at Huechow. She married Dr. Hearn in 1918. Mrs. Hearn is now Editorial Secretary of the Nurses' Association of China and editor of the bi-lingual Quarterly Journal for Chinese Nurses. Lacy L. Little (1889) is in charge of extensive missionary operations at Kiangyin, Ku, and Dr. George C. Worth (1893) has charge of a large hospital there. George P. Stevens (1902) is at N. Kiang Su Pu, Teng Sien, Shantung Province, China. Eugene Barnett is Y. M. C. A. Secretary at Hangchow. In Korea the University has Mrs. J. F. Preston (Annie Wiley) at Soonehun, Chosen.

Shinjiro Kitasawa, A.M. (1910), took his Ph.D. at Johns Hopkins in 1914, and is now professor of economics at Waseda University, professor of economics at St. Paul's College, and lecturer on economics at Bunka School, Tokyo. He is also research professor of the Ohara Institute for the study of social problems, Osaka. Dr. Kitasawa is author of a number of books, as "The Principles of Commerce," "Advertising," "The Labor Problem," "The Laborer Problem," and "Recent Tendencies in Labor Movements."

Seiji Shiki, A.M. (1917), is reporter for the Japanese Telegraph News Agency and secretary of The Tar Heel Club of Tokyo. The club gave a banquet in honor of Professor Cobb. Mr. Shiki was recently married.

Hiroshi Momiyama, A.M. (1917), is a leading statesman of the Constitutionalist party in Japan and a close associate of Marquis Okuma.

Kiyoshi Nagano, A.M. (1918), is president of a big newspaper company publishing a number of daily papers on Kinshin. His office is at Oita City.

Yosuhiro Naito (1917-18), is managing director of North and Rae, limited, a big drug firm in Yokohama.

Kameichi Kato (1918), is with a big importing firm at 471 Fourth Avenue, New York.

SUMMER SCHOOL DID FINE WORK

One of the largest groups of students ever assembled in North Carolina during the summer was present in Chapel Hill for the 34th session of the Summer School, June 21-August 4, and for the Summer Law School. The registration of the Summer School was 1,090 and of the Law School 54, making a total of 1,144 for the combined registration.

In spite of the unusual heat of the summer, Director N. W. Walker considered the session the most successful in the University's history. Graduate students, teachers, and undergraduates pursuing courses leading to a degree maintained a high average of work, and the attitude of the faculty and teachers alike towards the new educational program of North Carolina was admirable.

Among the features of the Summer School were a musical festival conducted by Professor Weaver consisting of two evening programs, the first being a miscellaneous program, and the second the opera "Troyatore"; presentation by the Carolina Playmakers of three of their original plays, The Vamp, In Dixon's Kitchen and The Miser, and an outdoor performance of Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing; a series of interesting lectures in rural education by State Superintendent O. A. Thomas, of Maine, and Dr. Lee L. Driver, Director of the Bureau of Rural Education of Pennsylvania; a six weeks institute for North Carolina public welfare workers; and a special address by State Superintendent E. C. Brooks in which he set forth the new program which the State is carrying out in the public schools.

Miss Edith Stedman Wilson, daughter of Dr. Henry Van Peters Wilson of the department of Zoölogy of the University, and Dr. Thorndike Sayville, associate professor of Sanitary Engineering in the University, were married on Saturday, September 10, at the Chapel of the Cross in Chapel Hill, Reverend Alfred Stratton Lawrence, rector of the church, officiating. Other members of the wedding party were Miss Eleanor Stansbury Wilson, Miss Eline von Borries, Henry Van Peters Wilson, Jr., Frank Porter Graham, and Wesley Critz George.

THE ALUMNI REVIEW

Issued monthly except in July, August, and September, by the General Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina.

Board of Publication

THE REVIEW is edited by the following Board of Publication:
 Louis R. Wilson, '99 Editor
 Associate Editors: Walter Murphy, '92; Harry Howell, '95; Archibald Henderson, '98; W. S. Bernard, '00; J. K. Wilson, '05; Louis Graves, '02; F. P. Graham, '09; Kenneth Tanner, '11; Lenoir Chambers, '14; R. W. Madry, '18.
 E. R. Rankin, '13 Managing Editor

Subscription Price

Single Copies	$0.20
Per Year	1.50

Communications intended for the Editor and the Managing Editor should be sent to Chapel Hill, N. C. All communications intended for publication must be accompanied with signatures if they are to receive consideration.

OFFICE OF PUBLICATION, CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

Entered at the Postoffice at Chapel Hill, N. C., as second class matter.

THE UNIVERSITY IN PRINT

HISTORY AND GOVERNMENT OF NEW MEXICO. By John H. Vaughan, A.M. 369 pages. Illustrated. Maps. D. State College, New Mexico, 1921.

Under the title History and Government of New Mexico, John H. Vaughan, '04, dean of the School of General Science and professor of history and economics in the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, has organized in a remarkably successful way the almost four centuries of New Mexican history in one continuous narrative at once brief, readable, and reliable, and has presented it in such form and language as to bring it within the grasp of boys and girls in the public schools of that state. In undertaking the work of preparing the volume, Dean Vaughan has taken into full account the results of historical and scientific research in the history of the Southwest during recent years and consequently the work differs interestingly at many points from current tradition preserved in local chronicles. Altogether the author has been most happy in the accomplishment of his purpose to present a thoroughly informing and readable book on this section of the great southwest. Dean Vaughan is also author of a Preliminary Report on the Archives of New Mexico, and is now preparing a History of Education in New Mexico.

NEW EXTENSION PUBLICATIONS

Alumni of the University who are interested in furthering the work of the University Extension Division will be interested in three publications recently issued by the Division setting forth its activities for the present year. The titles are as follows: University Extension Service, being Vol. 1, No. 1, September 1, 1921, of the University of North Carolina Extension Bulletin; Vol. 1, No. 2, September 16, Extension Lecture Service; and Vol. 1, No. 3, October 1, Correspondence Courses. In the first of the three publications, a detailed statement of all the activities of the University Extension Division is made, and in the other two Bulletins, specific information is given relating to the entire lecture and correspondence services carried on by the Division.

It will be of interest to alumni to note that from this time on the Extension Leaflets which have been appearing for the last four years, have been discontinued, and that they, together with the Extension publications which have been issued in the University Record series, have been merged under the new title Extension Bulletin, fourteen numbers of which will appear during the year. Persons wishing to be placed on the mailing list should send a post-card request to the Director of Extension.

UNIVERSITY HOLDS MEETINGS ON TOWN AND COUNTY GOVERNMENT

A meeting that brought together prominent state, county and city officials of North Carolina and local government experts from other states was held in Chapel Hill September 19, 20 and 21. This was the first national regional conference on Town and County Administration, organized under the auspices of the University of North Carolina and the National Municipal League.

On account of the present crisis in municipal and county finances in this State, the event had unusual significance. Mayors, city managers and county commissioners told of their problems and got advice from one another at a series of round-table gatherings.

One of the incidents of the conference was the reading by President Chase, at the opening session, of a letter from the President of the United States. Mr. Harding expressed pleasure that the University was bringing together experts to discuss these important problems, and said he saw in this an encouraging reaction from the habit of depending upon the national government for aid in local affairs.

Among those who attended the conference were: E. C. Brooks, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Baxter Durham, State Auditor; Dr. W. S. Rankin, Secretary of the State Board of Health; Mrs. Clarence A. Johnson, State Commissioner of Public Welfare; W. A. McGirt, highway commissioner of Wilmington; Lionel Weil, chairman of the finance committee of the Goldsboro board of aldermen; Mayors Cowan of Wilmington, Eldridge of Raleigh, Kiser of Greensboro, Hanes of Winston-Salem, Roberts of Asheville, Walker of Charlotte, and Roberson of Chapel Hill; City Managers Painter of Greensboro, Rigsby of Durham, Henry of Hickory, and Wrenn of Reidsville; T. B. Patten, chairman of the board of county commissioners of Buncombe County; W. C. Jones, commissioner of High Point; W. W. Dodds, secretary of the National Municipal League; Arthur N. Pierson, member of the General Assembly of New Jersey and an expert on local finance legislation; Burke Hobgood of Durham, W. E. Ritter of Winston-Salem, President W. L. Poteat of Wake Forest, Morris Knowles, city planning expert of Pittsburgh; Jeffries C. Grinnalds, city planning expert of Baltimore; R. H. Ward, chairman of the board of commissioners of Orange County; and Miss Hattie Berry, secretary of the North Carolina Good Roads Association.

The Conference was arranged and conducted by Dr. Howard Odum, head of the department of Public Welfare in the University. The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners is to meet in Chapel Hill next August, and Dr. E. C. Branson, head of the department of Rural Sociology, is in charge of the arrangements for that.

WHO'S WHO IN WASHINGTON AND WHY

Under the above heading the Post of Washington, D. C., of August 28, had the following to say about Eugene F. Hartley, chief statistician of the division of manufactures, bureau of the census:

When Uncle Sam wants to take stock of the manufactures and industries of this country he puts the man-sized job on the capable shoulders of Eugene F. Hartley, chief statistician of the division of manufactures, bureau of the census.

E. F. HARTLEY, CLASS OF 1899

Once every five years a complete statistical inventory of all the manufacturing industries in the United States is taken by the government. This means 300,000 reports from individual manufacturers on more than 80 different schedules or questionnaires, the direction of a field force of 1,000 special agents, and the preparation and analysis of the final reports published as the census of manufactures. Because of its great value to American industry in the future it will be taken every two years.

Mr. Hartley has been engaged in census work for nearly twenty-two years, having risen through the successive grades in the census bureau. During this period he has collected census statistics in the field from Quoddy Head to the Golden Gate. He received his training under Mr. William M. Stewart, now director of the census, whom he succeeded as chief statistician more than four years ago.

CHANGES IN THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION AND DIVISION OF EXTENSION

Changes which became effective in the School of Education and the Extension Division at the beginning of September have been made as follows during the summer: M. C. S. Noble, dean of the School of Education relinquishes active administration of the school and is succeeded as acting dean by Professor

N. W. Walker, director of the Summer School and professor of Secondary Education. L. R. Wilson gives up the directorship of the Division of Extension and is succeeded by Chester D. Snell, assistant director since January, 1921. E. R. Rankin, Secretary of the High School Debating Union and assistant director, becomes associate director, while Miss Louise M. Venable becomes secretary of the Division, and Mrs. Walter J. Matherly succeeds Miss Eleanor Hoffmann as field secretary of the Bureau of Design and Improvement of School Grounds. Dr. Howard W. Odum assumes charge of the Bureau of County and Municipal Reference, and Dr. J. F. Steiner heads the new Bureau of Community Organization.

Dean Noble, in relinquishing the headship of the School of Education, retains his professorship in the school and will also devote himself to the preparation of a history of education in North Carolina since 1840, a task which has been committed to him by the North Carolina Historical Commission and for which he is admirably prepared.

Director Wilson, after organizing and bringing the Extension Division to its present status in the University, returns to the administration of the Library and the editing of THE REVIEW.

DR. CHASE ATTENDS CEREMONIALS

Immediately before and after commencement President H. W. Chase represented the University at two very significant academic celebrations in the south and north respectively. At the Centennial Celebration of the University of Virginia he delivered one of the principal addresses, and on June 2nd he spoke as the representative of the colleges of the southeast at the inaugural exercises of President Angell of Yale University. Dr. Chase is to speak in behalf of southern institutions at the inauguration of President Farand at Cornell University on October 20.

ALUMNI HEAD BIG ASSOCIATIONS

Press dispatches in the course of the summer months carried information to the effect that several Carolina men had been elected to the responsible leadership of big associations in their line of profession or business.

Agnew H. Bahnson, class of 1906, cotton manufacturer of Winston-Salem, was elected president of the North Carolina Cotton Manufacturers' Association, in succession to Thos. C. Leak, class of 1895, of Rockingham, another of the State's textile leaders.

Alumni of the University have been leaders in the textile industry since the early days when in 1820 Joel Battle, class of 1802, established at Falls of the Tar River (now Rocky Mount) one of the first cotton manufacturing establishments in the southern states. Incidentally, the plant established by Joel Battle in 1820 has grown into the present Rocky Mount Mills, managed by Thos. H. Battle, '80.

John A. McRae, class of 1904, of the Charlotte bar, was elected president of the North Carolina Bar Association, succeeding Thos. W. Davis, Law class of 1900, of Wilmington.

Bart M. Gatling, class of 1892, Raleigh postmaster and a lawyer by profession, was reelected as president of the State League of Postmasters.

A. L. M. Wiggins, class of 1913, identified with the Coker interests at Hartsville, S. C., was elected president of the Southern Retail Merchants' Association.

Union National Bank

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Capital $200,000.00

Surplus & Profits $252,000.00

Resources $3,000,000.00

We cordially invite the alumni and friends of the University of North Carolina to avail themselves of the facilities and courtesies of this bank.

D. P. TILLETT
Cashier

Southern Mill Stocks

All recent reports show an improvement in money conditions and in returning demand for cotton goods.

Just now is a good time to buy

SOUTHERN MILL STOCKS

We have several very good offerings indeed at this time, at prices which should show good profits as the mill business becomes adjusted again.

Send for special list.

F. C. Abbott & Co.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.
INVESTMENTS

Phone 238 Postal Phone
Long Dist. 9957

GENERAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION of the UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Officers of the Association

Albert L. Cox, '04..... President

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Walter Murphy, '92; Dr. R. H. Lewis, '70; W. N. Everett, '86; H. E. Rondthaler, '93; C. W. Tillet, Jr., '09.

WITH THE CLASSES

1859

—Jas. P. Coffin, of Batesville, Ark., who has been for more than half a century the leading spirit in keeping the class of 1859 united, writes that there are now ten survivors of the class and that with two or three exceptions all are enjoying a reasonably good state of health. The full list follows: Geo. F. Dixon, Wynne, Ark.; Jas. E. Beasley, Memphis, Tenn.; Jas. P. Taylor, Angleton, Texas; F. C. Robbins, Lexington; John Duncan, Columbus, Texas; Lueius Frieron, Birmingham, Ala.; Dr. Henry L. Rugeley, Bay City, Texas; Dr. P. B. Bacot, Florence, S. C.; Jas. G. Whitfield, Whitfield, Ala.; and Jas. P. Coffin, Batesville, Ark.

1862

—Judge Thomas W. Taylor, a native of Granville county, is now on the circuit bench of the State of West Virginia. He lives at Huntington.

1864

—Under the title of "Sixty Years Afterward," the News and Observer carried in July in three installments an interesting account by Chief Justice Walter Clark of his visit in the early summer to the Virginia battlefields.

—General Jas. I. Metts, of Wilmington, was reelected in August as commander of the N. C. Division, United Confederate Veterans. General Metts is engaged in the wholesale grain business at Wilmington.

—Judge Augustus Van Wyck practices law at 44 Beaver St., New York City. Judge Van Wyck was formerly on the New York Supreme Court bench and was the nominee of the Democratic party for governor of New York against Theodore Roosevelt.

1866

—Durham entertained handsomely the Confederate Veterans of North Carolina at their annual convention in August. General Julian S. Carr, '66, commander of the Army of Northern Virginia, was the moving spirit in the big celebration, and L. P. McLendon, '12, Durham attorney and chairman of the board of city school commissioners, was chairman of the general committee which had charge of all arrangements.

The Trust Department

Of the Southern Life and Trust Company buys and sells high grade stocks and bonds. We have for sale some especially attractive preferred stocks.

Trust Department

Southern Life & Trust Company

A. W. McALISTER, President.

R. G. VAUGHN, First Vice-President.

A. M. SCALES, General Counsel and Vice-President.

Independence Trust Company

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Capital & Surplus, $1,600,000

Member Federal Reserve System

All departments of a well-regulated bank are maintained, among which are the Commercial, Savings, Collections, Foreign Exchange, and Trust, and we cordially invite free use of any of these departments.

J. H. LITTLE, President
E. O. ANDERSON, Vice-Pres.
E. E. JONES, Cashier

THE BANK of CHAPEL HILL

Oldest and Strongest Bank in Orange County

Capital $25,000.00
Surplus and Profits 50,000.00

We earnestly solicit your banking business, promising you every service and assistance consistent with safe banking. "It pleases us to please you."

M. C. S. NOBLE, President
R. L. STROWD, V-President
M. E. HOGAN, Cashier

The Fidelity Bank

With Total Resources of Over

Six Million Dollars

Solicits Your Account

Four per cent. compound interest on savings

No account too small to receive our careful attention

The Fidelity Bank
Durham, N. C.

1881

—Dr. B. F. McMillan, former legislator, practices his profession, medicine, at Red Springs.

—The Rouse Banking Co., of La Grange, is a Carolina bank. All of the officers are alumni. N. J. Rouse, '81, lawyer of Kinston, is president; T. R. Rouse, '84, is cashier; and J. P. Joyner, '82, is assistant cashier.

—Dr. R. P. Pell, president of Converse College, Spartanburg, S. C., has been the guiding influence in the organizations of the Citizens Educational Association, which has for its object the advancement of education in South Carolina, from the primary through the University. The Spartanburg Herald recently said: "Spartanburg is proud of Dr. Pell as the head of the fine college which he has succeeded in placing among the foremost in the south; Spartanburg is proud of him as one of the workers in the noble cause of education in South Carolina."

—Judge W. J. Adams, of Carthage, received appointment on September 19 at the hands of Governor Morrison as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina in succession to the late Justice W. R. Allen. Judge Adams received the A.B. degree from the University in 1881. He returned to Chapel Hill and studied law through the years 1882-83 and 1883-84, and then located in his home town, Carthage, for the practice of his profession. He continued in law practice until 1908 when he began his service on the Superior Court bench for his district. Judge Adams is held in general regard as one of the ablest jurists in the State. Before going on the Superior Court bench Judge Adams had represented his county in both branches of the General Assembly. He is 61 years of age.

1884

—Jas. Lee Love, formerly of the Harvard faculty, is now located at Gastonia where he is engaged in the cotton mill business as president of the Gastonia Cotton Mfg. Co.

—Two leading Methodist institutions of learning in the State have alumni at their helm: Dr. S. B. Turrentine, '84, as president of the Greensboro College for Women, at Greensboro; and Dr. R. B. John, '80, as president of Carolina College, at Maxton.

1885

—Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer and former Secretary of the Navy, delivered addresses at the meeting of the N. C. Cotton Manufacturers' Association, held at Asheville in June, and at the meeting of the N. C. Press Association, held at Morehead City in July.

School and Society

With which are consolidated The School Journal, established in 1874, and The Teachers' Magazine, established 1878.

Edited by

J. MEKEEN CATTLELL

A weekly journal covering the field of education in relation to the problems of American democracy.

$5.00 a year 15 cents a copy

Published every Saturday by

THE SCIENCE PRESS
Garrison, N. Y.

Save Your Money

Buy bonds and protect your own and your family's future.

Bonds are safe and marketable and can be obtained to yield up to 7 per cent.

Consult your banker regarding the bonds this company sells.

HENDERSON-WINDER COMPANY

INVESTMENTS

Greensboro National Bank Bldg.
Greensboro, N. C.

Chas. Lee Smith, Pres. Howell L. Smith, Sec'y
Wm. Oliver Smith, Treas.

Edwards and Broughton Printing Company
Raleigh, N. C.

Engraved Wedding Invitations, Christmas
Cards, Visiting Cards and Correspondence Stationery

Printers, Publishers and Stationers

Steel and Copper Plate Engravers

Manufacturers of
Blank Books and Loose Leaf Systems

1886

—R. L. Strowd has been appointed acting postmaster at Chapel Hill, succeeding the late R. S. MaeRae.

—Among those visiting relatives and friends in Chapel Hill during the summer were: Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, '86, and Mrs. Wilson, of Washington; and A. W. Mangum, '97, Mrs. Mangum, and A. W. Mangum, Jr., of Florida.

—N. A. Sinclair, '86, J. Bayard Clark, '06, and R. H. Dye have recently formed a strong law partnership at Fayetteville under the firm name of Sinclair, Dye and Clark. Mr. Sinclair was for eight years solicitor of his district and was formerly a member of the State Senate. Mr. Clark practiced law at Elizabethtown for fifteen years and formerly represented Bladen County in the House of the N. C. Legislature.

—Col. Junius E. West, attorney of Suffolk, Va., has received the nomination of the Democratic party for lieutenant-governor of Virginia. After leaving the University, Col. West was for several years a school official in Virginia. Later he studied law at the University of Virginia and, since obtaining his license, has practiced his profession at Suffolk. He has been for a long time prominent in Virginia polities.

1887

—Dr. D. T. Wilson has a year's leave of absence from his post in the faculty of the Case School of Applied Science, Cleveland, Ohio.

1888

—L. B. Edwards, capitalist of Live Oak, Fla., has been appointed secretary to Governor Hardee of Florida.

—Eugene Withers is senior member of the law firm of Withers, Brown and Benton, with offices at 529 Main St., Danville, Va.

—Rev. T. J. Eskridge is pastor of the Highland Park Methodist Church, one of the most important charges in Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. Eskridge is a native of Shelby.

—Julian H. Little, president of the Independence Trust Co., Charlotte, has been elected president of the Citizens Hotel Co., Charlotte's new million dollar hotel corporation. Directors other than Mr. Little include Robert Lassiter, '98, cotton manufacturer, and Word H. Wood, '95, president of the American Trust Co.

1889

—Rev. W. M. Curtis is financial secretary of the Greensboro College for Women.

—Junius Parker, chief counsel for the American Tobacco Co., New York City, was principal speaker at the meeting of the N. C. Bar Association, held at Charlotte in July.

The Young Man who prefers (and most young men do) styles that are a perfect blend of novelty and refinement has long since learned the special competency of this clothes shop.

Pritchard-Bright & Co.

Durham, N. C.

Fashion Park Clothes

Manhattan Shirts

Stetson Hats

We always carry a large stock for the young man

HINE-MITCHELL CO., Inc.
"The Style Shop"
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

Asphalt Roads and Streets

Durable and Economical

If you are interested in streets or roads we invite you to inspect our work. See the Asphalt Highways built by us recently: Rocky-Mount-Nashville Highway, Raleigh-Cary Highway, Durham toward Hillsboro, Durham toward Roxboro, Greensboro to High Point, Guilford County, Gibsonville Road, Guilford County, Archdale Road, Guilford County, Thomasville Road, Guilford County, Guilford Station Road and many others. This work speaks for itself.

A representative will visit you and supply any information or estimates desired.

Robert G. Lassiter & Co.
Engineering and Contracting
Home Office: Oxford, N. C.

327 Arcade BuildingNorfolk, Va.
1002 Citizens Bank BuildingRaleigh, N. C.
American Exchange National Bank
BuildingGreensboro, N. C.

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF

FATIMA, CHESTERFIELD
AND PIEDMONT
CIGARETTES
VELVET AND DUKE'S
MIXTURE SMOKING TOBACCO AND
other well known brands of Smoking Tobacco, Cigarettes and Chewing Tobacco.

Our brands are standard for quality.

They speak for themselves.

—Rev. Lacy L. Little is on leave from his post as missionary to China and is spending some time at his home at Mangum.

1890

—W. S. Snipes, former head of the Fayetteville schools, is now superintendent of the Dunn schools.

—Dr. J. J. Philips, a native of Tarboro, practices medicine in Raleigh, with offices in the Tucker Building. His specialty is the diseases of children.

—C. D. Bradham, '90, of New Bern, has been named by Governor Morrison as president of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. W. Stamps Howard, '97, of Tarboro, is the new secretary. Directors other than these two officers include: H. D. Bateman, '01, Wilson; Courtney Mitchell, Law '07, Kinston; W. H. McElwee, '85, Raleigh; Dr. J. F. Patterson, '03, New Bern.

1891

—Van Wyck Hoke, of Lincolnton, was married last June. Attendance upon the reunion of the class of '91 last commencement was impossible, as Mr. Hoke was getting married about that time.

—J. K. Norfleet, of Winston-Salem, has become associated with the leaf department of the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

—P. H. Williams is president of the Savings Bank and Trust Co., Elizabeth City. This institution lately moved into its handsome new home. Mr. Williams was engaged in the hosiery manufacturing business for fifteen years.

—Rev. J. L. Cuninggim is in the faculty of the Southern Methodist University at Dallas, Texas. He has attained considerable distinction as a Sunday school organizer and administrator.

1892

—J. B. Schniken is senior member of the law firm of Schulken, Grady and Toon, at Whiteville.

—F. M. Shannonhouse practices law in Charlotte and was formerly recorder of the city court.

—Bart M. Gatling, Raleigh postmaster, was reelected in August as president of the State League of Postmasters, at the meeting held in Hickory.

—Dr. R. H. Johnston is now located at Wilson, where he is engaged in the practice of medicine, specializing in diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Dr. Johnston moved recently from Tarboro to Wilson. He practiced medicine for a number of years in Baltimore, Md.

—Speaking of A. W. McLean, '92, Senator F. M. Simmons said recently on the floor of the U. S. Senate: "Mr. McLean is one of the most remarkable men my State has produced. Less than 50 years old he is one of the largest farmers in the South. He is the president of one large banking institution and

The

O. HENRY

The Pride of Greensboro

North Carolina's largest and finest commercial and tourist hotel.

300 Rooms

300 Baths

Thoroughly modern. Absolutely fireproof. Large sample rooms. Convention hall. Ball room. Addition of 100 rooms completed September 1, 1920.

W. H. Lowry Cabell Young
Manager Asst. Manager

A. A. KLUTTZ CO., Inc.

Extends a cordial invitation to all students and alumni of U. N. C. to make their store headquarters during their stay in Chapel Hill.

Complete Stock of books, stationery and a complete line of shoes and haberdashery made by the leaders of fashion, always on hand.

A. A. KLUTTZ CO., Inc.

The Yarborough

RALEIGH'S LEADING AND LARGEST HOTEL

MAKE IT YOUR HOME WHEN IN RALEIGH

B. H. GRIFFIN HOTEL COMPANY

*Vansstory's
Snappy Clothes for the College Man*

*Society and Stein Block
Clothes
for the young and those who stay young*

Vansstory Clothing Co.

C. H. McKnight, Pres. and Mgr.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

Book Exchange

Taylor Agency

vice-president of another. He has large interests in two of the largest textile manufacturing establishments in my State, and they have been successfully managed. He has built, practically out of his own resources, a railroad of something over 50 miles and is operating it with success. In addition, he is one of the ablest lawyers in the State."

1893

—John A. Gilmer is connected with the internal revenue bureau at Washington, D. C.

—V. H. Boyden, Law '93, holds a position with the U. S. Air Service, in a legal capacity, at Washington, D. C.

—C. G. Peebles, formerly an attorney of Jackson, is now engaged in farming at Hubert, Ga.

1894

—Louis M. Swink is senior member of the law firm of Swink, Korner and Hutchins, at Winston Salem.

—Rev. E. M. Snipes lives at Weldon and is presiding elder of the Warrenton district of the Methodist church. Mr. Snipes is a former Carolina football star.

1895

—Dr. W. J. Weaver practices his profession, medicine, at Leicester.

—Judge Thomas D. Bryson, of the Superior Court bench, and Miss Zulia Ketehie were married on July 16 at Mount Ulla. They make their home at Bryson City.

—Dr. N. M. Watson is pastor of the First Methodist Church of Bristol, Tenn. Dr. Watson is influential in the educational work of the Holston Conference and is secretary of the board of education.

—O. H. Dockery, Jr., Law '95, a native of Rockingham, holds the rank of lieutenant-colonel in the adjutant-general's department, U. S. Army.

—Chas. F. Tomlinson is president of the Southern Furniture Exposition Building Corporation, which has lately opened at High Point the biggest building of its kind in the world.

—John L. Patterson, '95, Richmond, Va., A. H. Bahnsen, '06, Winston-Salem, and K. S. Tanner, '11, Spindale, were re-elected in July as members of the executive committee of the N. C. Cotton Manufacturers' Association. J. Harvey White, '96, of Graham, was named chairman of the committee on taxation, commerce and labor. R. G. Rankin, '10, of Gastonia, was named chairman of the committee on finance, audit and cotton buying.

1896

—Heenan Hughes, Law '96, and Miss Annie Ray, both of Graham, were married on August 4. Mr. Hughes is a former mayor of the city.

Our New Fall Styles

in men's clothes are now complete. CAROLINA men are given a cordial invitation to call in and inspect our offerings of latest models and fine textures from fashionable clothes makers. A full line of gents' furnishings is always on hand.

Sneed-Markham-Taylor Co.

Durham, N. C.

KODAK FINISHING

As Good as the Best Anywhere

Over eighty per cent of our business is mail order

May we send you a price list?

R. W. FOISTER

BOX 242

CHAPEL HILL

N. C.

WANTED

We want a responsible man as our local agent in every town or city over 500 population, to distribute VIRGINIA COALS from our mines direct to the consumer.

This is a splendid opportunity for right man to establish a good legitimate business.

In first letter give bank references and state financial responsibility.

Address Miners, Box 152
Roanoke, Va.

Rawls-Knight Co.

"Durham's Style Store"

We extend a special invitation to our Chapel Hill friends to visit our store and view what's new in Spring and Summer wearing apparel.

Fashion's very latest styles in Coats, Suits, Dresses and Smart Millinery.

Beautiful Silks and Woolen Dresses in the most appealing styles.

All the new weaves in cotton and woolen goods, silks, duvetyn, plush. Large line of silk and cotton hosiery. The home of Lady Ruth, Crown, Modart and Binner Corsets. Centemerri Kid Gloves and Ashers Knit Goods.

Mail orders promptly filled.

Rawls-Knight Co.
Durham, N. C.

—C. D. Koonce practices law at Chadbourn and is judge of the Columbus County recorder's court. He is a native of Onslow County.

—H. A. Grady practices law at Clinton as senior member of the firm of Grady and Graham. He is a former mayor of Clinton and a past grandmaster of the Grand Lodge of Masons.

—Alumni of U. N. C. in Chester, S. C., include: A. H. Robbins, '96, cotton manufacturer; W. M. McNairy, '97, former superintendent of the city schools; Rev. A. R. Morgan, '10, Episcopal minister; and B. C. Harrell, '17, executive secretary of the Y. M. C. A. S. W. Kluttz, '06, and Dr. DeWitt Kluttz, '15, are natives of Chester but they now live in Washington, D. C., and Washington, N. C., respectively. S. W. Kluttz is a newspaper man and Dr. DeWitt Kluttz is a physician.

1897

—W. H. Austin is president of the mercantile firm of Austin-Stephenson Co., at Smithfield.

—F. J. Haywood is secretary and treasurer of the Brown and Norett cotton mills at Concord.

—S. Brown Shepherd, Raleigh lawyer, is president of the Raleigh Tobacco Warehouse Co. Among the directors are: John H. Andrews, '96, and Dr. Z. M. Caveness, '03. Prior to this year, no tobacco had been marketed in Raleigh in 15 years.

1898

—J. G. McCormick lives in Wilmington, where he practices law and is also secretary and treasurer of the Acme Fertilizer Co.

—Robert Lassiter, '98, of Charlotte, has been named by Governor Morrison as a director of the North Carolina railroad. R. N. Hackett, '85, of North Wilkesboro, has been named attorney.

—George Knox Tate and Miss Aurelia Josephine Vance were married on September 6 in the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Greenville, S. C. They live at McAdenville, where Mr. Tate is general superintendent of the McAden Mills.

—H. H. McKay and G. K. Grantham, both of Dunn, have lately entered into the drug business at Gastonia. Mr. McKay has moved from Dunn to Gastonia and will have active charge of the Gastonia firm styled McKay and Grantham. Mr. McKay is a member of the Pharmacy Class of 1898 and Mr. Grantham is a member of the board of trustees of the University.

1899

H. M. WAGSTAFF, Secretary,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

—Henry M. London, '99, of Raleigh, was elected in August secretary and treasurer of the N. C. Bar Association, suc-

R. L. BALDWIN CO. DURHAM, N. C.

High-class Ready-to-wear Millinery, Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Trunks and Bags.

We extend to you a cordial invitation to make this store your headquarters when in the city.

New Goods on Display Now

R. L. BALDWIN CO.

105 W. Main St.

DRINK

Delicious and Refreshing

Quality tells the difference in the taste between Coca Cola and counterfeits.

Demand the genuine by full name—nicknames encourage substitution.

Get a bottle of the genuine from your grocer, fruit stand, or cafe.

Durham Coca-Cola Bottling Co.
Durham, N. C.

I. G. LAWRENCE

W. H. LAWRENCE AND T. H. LAWRENCE ASSOCIATED

CONTRACTOR

AND

BUILDER

Main Office: Durham, N. C.

CONTRACTOR FACULTY HOUSES AND LAUNDRY

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

A. E. Lloyd Hardware Company

DURHAM, N. C.

All kinds of hardware, sporting goods, and college boys' accessories.

Geo. W. Tandy, Manager

SALMON, SHIPP AND POE

DURHAM, N. C.

CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS

CONTRACTORS NEW DORMITORY
UNIVERSITY OF N. C.

Budd-Piper Roofing Co.

Durham, N. C.

Distributors of JOHNS-MANSVILLE

Asbestos Shingles and Roofing

Barrett Specification Roofing

Sheet Metal Work

AGENTS FOR

ceeding A. B. Andrews, '93, of Raleigh.—Louis R. Wilson, '99, and Louis Graves, '02, both of the University faculty, delivered addresses at the meeting of the N. C. Press Association, held in Morehead City in July.

1900

W. S. BERNARD, Secretary,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

—John A. Tate is a cotton merchant of Charlotte.

—R. H. Staton, Law '00, lawyer of Hendersonville and former mayor of the city, has received appointment as postmaster.

—M. W. Nash, Law '00, lawyer of Hamlet and member of the State Senate, has been appointed by Governor Morrison as solicitor of his district.

—Walter Davis Siler and Miss Lida Loyd Alston were married on June 29 at Pittsboro. They live at Siler City. Mr. Siler practices law at Siler City and is solicitor of the fourth judicial district.

—J. W. Greening, of El Dorado, Ark., spent a day on the Hill in August. Mr. Greening was formerly engaged in railway business but is now a planter. An oil boom has struck the El Dorado section and Mr. Greening thinks the chances for striking oil on his property are reasonably good.

—Major Ernest Graves, U. S. A. retired, is contributing a series of articles on football to the American Boy. In announcing the series the editors of this magazine say: "One of the leading authorities on football, 'Big Bill' Edwards, the famous Princeton player, recently named Major Graves as tackle on the All-Time All-American Football Team. Major Graves was captain of the West Point team in 1904 and has been a coach there nine seasons since. He was a coach at Harvard in 1907 and 1908."

The editors recount Major Graves' valuable work in Mexico with General Pershing in 1916 and continue: "In the spring of the next year when America had declared war and all the Army was buzzing with gossip as to who would accompany the Commander-in-chief on the first boat off to Europe, Graves' name was not mentioned. He was at El Paso, far from the center of influence. One day he got a telegram from General Pershing, telling him to report in Washington. One of the first dozen men of the A. E. F. to walk down the gang plank on to European soil, he was in France during the rest of the war. And at the end he was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal."

1901

J. G. MURPHY, Secretary,
Wilmington, N. C.

—Dr. C. D. Appenzeller is a chiropodist, located at 4 Hudson street, Yonkers, N. Y.

MARKHAM-ROGERS COMPANY

Clothiers, Tailers, Furnishers and Hatters

ALL THE NEW FALL
STYLES AT REASONABLE
PRICES

DURHAM, N. C.

ODELL'S, INC.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

China, Cut Glass and Silverware

General line Sporting Goods
Household Goods

Dependable goods. Prompt Service. Satisfactory
Prices

HICKS-CRABTREE COMPANY

THREE MODERN DRUG STORES

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Eastman Kodaks and Supplies
Nunnally's Candies

The place to meet your friends when in the Capital City

GILBERT CRABTREE, Mgr.

Cross & Linehan Company

Leaders in Clothing and Gents' Furnishings

RALEIGH, N. C.

TIME TO THINK ABOUT CHRISTMAS

AND YOUR NEEDS IN

Individual Greeting Cards

Business Greeting Cards

Monogram Stationery

Engraved Calling Cards

"At Your Service"

The Seaman Printery, Inc.
Printing Engraving Office Supplies
Durham, N. C.

For Ideas, Information or Estimates address
Department of Ideas and Service

COLGATE'S
"HANDY GRIP"
The Refill Shaving Stick

Like Renewing a Battery in a Flashlight

PUTTING a "Refill" into Colgate's "Handy Grip" is easy and simple. The soap itself is threaded to screw into the socket. It's done in a moment.

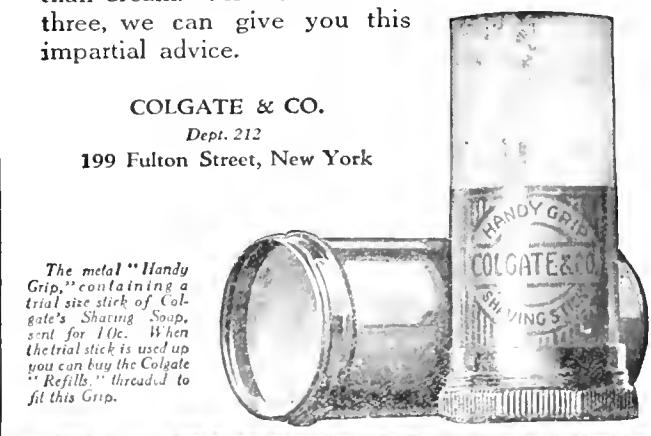

"Refills" cost you the price of the soap alone. Moisten the bit removed from the "Handy Grip" and stick it upon the end of the "Refill." There is no waste.

Colgate's lathers freely; softens the most difficult beard; needs no mussy rubbing in with the fingers, and leaves the face cool and refreshed.

Colgate's Shaving Stick not only produces the most soothing lather for the average man but it is a little more economical in use than powder and much more economical than cream. As we make all three, we can give you this impartial advice.

COLGATE & CO.
Dept. 212
199 Fulton Street, New York

The metal "Handy Grip," containing a trial size stick of Colgate's Shaving Soap, sent for 10c. When the trial stick is used up you can buy the Colgate "Refills," threaded to fit this Grip.

Perry-Horton Shoe Co.

Special Agents for Nettleton and Hurley Shoes for Men, and Cousins and Grover Shoes for Women

MAKE OUR STORE HEAD-QUARTERS WHILE IN

DURHAM, N. C.

Bijou Theatre

DURHAM, N. C.

HIGH CLASS PICTURES AND SPECIAL MUSIC—YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

Open from 11 A.M. Until 11 P.M.

COOPER'S MONUMENTS

Communicate with me regarding your needs for monuments or tombstones. Will gladly forward catalogue upon request.

W. A. COOPER

RALEIGH, N. C.

ESSIE BROS.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

Students' Headquarters for Fountain Drinks and Smokes

Agents for BLOCK'S CANDIES

—Adolphus Staton, native of Tarboro, holds the rank of commander in the U. S. Navy.

—Jackson Greer, former member of the State Senate, practices law at Whiteville. He is county attorney and is solicitor of the county recorder's court.

—Dr. John A. Ferrell is the executive in charge of the campaign of the International Health Commission for the eradication of disease. The offices of the commission are at 61 Broadway, New York City.

1902

I. F. LEWIS, Secretary, University, Va.

—J. C. Allison is secretary and treasurer of the Raleigh Building and Loan Association.

—Dr. C. O. Abernethy practices medicine in Raleigh with offices in the Citizens National Bank Building.

—Rev. O. W. Dowd was married during the past summer. He is now pastor of the Methodist church at Morehead City. —J. E. Swain, of Asheville, is serving at Charlotte under appointment of Superior Court as referee in a million dollar suit instituted by the Hardaway Contracting Co. against the Southern Power Co.

—Chas. A. Jonas, '02, Lincolnton lawyer, and Thos. J. Harkins, '03, Asheville lawyer, have been named by District Attorney F. A. Linney as assistant district attorneys for the western N. C. district.

—G. L. Jones, known to his college mates as "Bully" Jones, practices law in Asheville as a member of the firm of Bourne, Parker and Jones. Until last fall he lived at his old home, Franklin, and was for several years solicitor of the 20th judicial district.

1903

N. W. WALKER, Secretary,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

—S. B. McLean, lawyer of Maxton, is solicitor of the ninth judicial district.

—J. J. Thrower is president of the J. J. Thrower Co., general merchants of Red Springs. W. B. Townsend, '14, is president of this firm.

—Hugh Hammond Bennett and Miss Elizabeth Virginia Brown were married on July 16 at Washington, D. C. They live at Nantucket Apartment, 1418 W. St. N. W., Washington. Mr. Bennett holds a responsible position with the U. S. Bureau of Soils.

1904

T. F. HICKERSON, Secretary,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

—At the meeting of the N. C. Bar Association held at Charlotte in July, John A. McRae, '04, of Charlotte, was elected president, succeeding Thos. W. Davis, Law '00, of Wilmington.

HUTCHINS DRUG STORE

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

A drug store complete in all respects located in the heart of Winston-Salem and operated by CAROLINA men, where up-to-the-minute service is maintained, and where Alumni and their friends are always especially welcome.

JAS. A. HUTCHINS, Manager

The Royal Cafe

University students, faculty members, and alumni visit the Royal Cafe while in Durham. Under new and progressive management. Special parlors for ladies.

DURHAM'S MODERN CAFE

The Princess Cafe

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT US
WHILE IN WINSTON-SALEM

A THOROUGHLY MODERN CAFE

BROADWAY CAFE

WE CORDIALLY INVITE YOU TO VISIT OUR CAFE WHEN YOU ARE IN GREENSBORO

Excellent Service

Courteous Treatment

GREENSBORO, N. C.

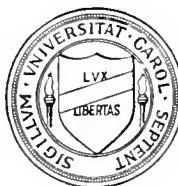

ESTABLISHED 1916

Alumni Loyalty Fund

“One for all, and all for one”

Council:

A. M. SCALES, '92
 LESLIE WEIL, '95
 L. R. WILSON, '99
 A. W. HAYWOOD, '04
 W. T. SHORE, '05
 J. A. GRAY, '08

Join the Alumni Loyalty Fund

As an alumnus of Carolina you are offered the opportunity of becoming a member of an association whose purpose is to

Underwrite Alma Mater's Program

Any contribution, no matter how small, is a sufficient qualification for membership. Do not hesitate to contribute whatever amount you feel able to give, as the idea back of the Fund is for everyone who has ever attended the University to contribute in accordance with his means.

Will you indicate your interest in what the Fund is doing for Carolina by joining the list of contributors this year?

Will you help us show Dr. Chase we are back of him 10,000 strong?

Please mail this coupon today

Julius Algernon Warren, Treas.
 Alumni Loyalty Fund
 Chapel Hill, N. C.

Enclosed find my Alumni Loyalty Fund Contribution for 1921, as follows:

Name.....

Address.....

Date..... Class.....

Check here

$ 2.00

$ 5.00

$10.00

$20.00

$30.00

$50.00

$

THE CAROLINA MAN'S SHOE STORE

Carr-BryantHigh Grade Shoes with Snap and StyleCarr-Bryant Boot & Shoe Co.
106 W. Main Street Durham, N. C.W. B. SORRELLJeweler and Optometrist
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.Model Laundry Co.

DURHAM, N. C.

Expert Laundry Service

PRIDGEN & JONES COMPANY

We carry the best shoes, Edwin Clapp, Howard and Foster, and Heywood's.

Expert fitters—A cordial welcome awaits you.

107 W. Main St. Durham, N. C.

NEW LOCHMOOR HOTEL
DURHAM, N. C.

Invites the patronage of CAROLINA Alumni and assures them of a hearty welcome. Excellent service at reasonable rates.

For neat job printing and type-writer paper, call at the office of

Chapel Hill NewsGooch's Cafe

Anything to Eat

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

DURHAM BUSINESS SCHOOL

Offers exceptional opportunities to those desiring training in the fundamental principles of business.

Write for catalogue and full particulars to

MRS. WALTER LEE LIDDELL, President
DURHAM, N. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Conneil, of Morehead City, have announced the birth on May 2 of a son, E. A., Jr. Mr. Conneil is cashier of the Marine Bank.

—Dr. W. P. Jacocks is now located at Galla Face Hospital, Colombo, Ceylon. Dr. Jacocks is director over a considerable area for the health service of the International Health Commission.

—John H. Vaughan is dean of the school of general science and professor of history and economics in the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, at State College, N. M. This institution was ranked by the U. S. Bureau of Education in 1912 as one of the half dozen leading agricultural colleges of the country.

1905

W. T. SHORE, Secretary,
Charlotte, N. C.

—Jas. E. Barry, Law '05, former Carolina football star, practices law in Norfolk, Va.

—A. M. Noble, for the past four years chief judge of native affairs at Pago, Pago, American Samoa, has resigned this post and returned to his home at Smithfield, where he has resumed the practice of law.

—Dr. G. C. Singletary practices medicine at his home town, Clarkton. He is a member of the local school board. Dr. Singletary was in the school business for several years and served as superintendent of the Burlington schools.

—Rev. Francis A. Cox, lately ordained into the Episcopal ministry, sailed on August 18 from Vancouver for Shanghai, where he will take up his work in the foreign mission field. Mr. Cox, who was formerly a lawyer in Raleigh in partnership with his brother, Col. Albert L. Cox, '04, saw service overseas as a first lieutenant of field artillery with the 82nd division.

1906

MAJ. J. A. PARKER, Secretary,
Washington, D. C.

—Roy M. Brown is field agent with the N. C. department of public welfare, Raleigh.

—J. W. Winborne practices law at Marion in the firm of Pless, Winborne, and Pless.

—J. S. Calvert is U. S. Consul at Basse Terre, Guadeloupe, French West Indies.

—Julian S. Miller, one of the best known newspaper men in the State, has been for several years editor of the Charlotte News.

—Ham C. Jones practices his profession, law, in Charlotte. Mr. Jones was formerly judge of the Charlotte city court and, following that, was assistant district attorney for the western N. C. district.

J. F. Pickard StoreHEAVY AND FANCY
GROCERIES
Opposite Campus
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.Electric Shoe ShopExpert Shoe Repairing
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

WELCOME TO

STONEWALL HOTELA. D. GANNAWAY, Manager
CHARLOTTE, N. C.Campbell-Warner Co.FINE MONUMENTS
REASONABLE PRICES. WRITE US
Phone 1131
RALEIGH, N. C.CHAS. C. HOOK, ARCHITECT

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Twenty years' experience in planning school and college buildings.The Peoples National Bank

WINSTON SALEM, N. C.

Capital $150,000 U. S. Depository
J. W. FRIES, Pres. W. A. BLAIR, V.-P.
N. MITCHELL, Cashier
J. M. DEAN, Assistant CashierDillon Supply Co.Machinery, Mill Supplies
RALEIGH, N. C.R. BLACKNALL & SON

DRUGGISTS

NORRIS AND HUYLER'S CANDIES
G. BERNARD, Manager
Corcoran Street Durham, N. C.

Main Street Pharmacy
LEADING DRUGGISTS
Durham, N. C.

—A. H. Bahnsen, of Winston Salem, was elected president of the N. C. Cotton Manufacturers' Association at the annual convention held in Asheville in July. Mr. Bahnsen is president and treasurer of the Arista Mills, at Winston-Salem, and treasurer of the Mayo Mills, at Mayodan, and the Washington Mills, at Fries, Va. He has been engaged in cotton manufacturing since his graduation from the University in 1906.

Huffine Hotel
Quick Lunch Counter and Dining Room
Rooms $1.00 and Up Near the Depot
Greensboro, N. C.
J. R. DONNELL, Prop. and Manager

ANDREW'S CASH STORE
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.
Students and Faculty Headquarters for Cluett's, and E. & W. Shirts, Ralston and Walk Over Shoes, Sure Fit Caps, Hole-proof and Phoenix Hose, M. Moses Tailored Clothing, General Furnishings.
SERVICE—QUALITY—STYLES
JACK ANDREWS' DEPARTMENT

The University Press
ZEB P. COUNCIL, Mgr.
Printing, Engraved Cards
QUALITY AND SERVICE
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

PATTERSON BROS.
DRUGGISTS

Agency Norris Candy The Rexall Store
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

POLLARD BROS.
DURHAM, N. C.

STANDARD LINES OF HARD-WARE AND SPORTING GOODS

BAIN-KIMBALL CO.
Makers of STANDARD MONUMENTS
DURHAM, N. C.

HOTEL CLEGG
Greensboro, N. C.
OPPOSITE STATION
Rooms $1.50 and Up
Cafe in Connection
CAROLINA MEN WELCOME

—A. H. Bahnsen, of Winston Salem, was elected president of the N. C. Cotton Manufacturers' Association at the annual convention held in Asheville in July. Mr. Bahnsen is president and treasurer of the Arista Mills, at Winston-Salem, and treasurer of the Mayo Mills, at Mayodan, and the Washington Mills, at Fries, Va. He has been engaged in cotton manufacturing since his graduation from the University in 1906.

1907

C. L. WEILL, Secretary,
Greensboro, N. C.

—The Matheson firm of Charlotte physicians will construct an eye, ear, nose and throat hospital. Dr. Henry L. Sloan, '07, is a member of this firm of specialists.

—Mr. and Mrs. Duncan P. Tillett, of Charlotte, have announced the birth in August of a daughter, Wilma Inez. Mr. Tillett is cashier of the Union National Bank in his home city.

—W. S. O'B. Robinson, Jr., sits at the head of the legal department of the Southern Power Co., Charlotte. Associated with him in the legal department is Robert S. Hutchison, '02, of Charlotte.

—S. G. Noble is head of the department of education and of the extension division of Millsaps College, at Jackson, Miss. During the summer he was in the faculty of Peabody College at Nashville, Tenn.

—S. H. Farabee, '07, editor of the Hickory Record, was elected in July as second vice-president of the N. C. Press Association. R. E. Price, '19, editor of the Rutherfordton Sun, was elected treasurer. E. B. Jeffries, '07, manager of the Greensboro News, resigned as secretary.

1908

M. ROBINS, Secretary,
Greensboro, N. C.

—Dr. L. L. Hobbs, Jr., is chief resident surgeon at the University hospital, Philadelphia.

—W. E. Yelverton is with David Lawrence, Inc. He lives at 2815 Ordway St., Washington, D. C.

—F. L. Dunlap practices law at Wadesboro and represents his district in the State Senate.

—Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Ethel Terrell and Mr. Guy Weaver, both of Asheville. Miss Terrell was until recently superintendent of the Buncombe County schools.

—M. L. Wright has resigned the superintendency of the Chowan County schools at Edenton and has taken up his duties as head of the Carteret County schools at Beaufort.

—Dr. J. B. Watson, M.D., '08, practices medicine in Raleigh with offices in the Citizens National Bank Building.

The Selwyn Hotel
CHARLOTTE, N. C.
Fireproof, Modern and Luxurious
IN THE HEART OF EVERYTHING
H. C. LAZALERE, Manager

H. S. STORR CO.
Office Furniture, Machines and Supplies. Printers and Manufacturers of Rubber Stamps
RALEIGH, N. C.

Whiting-Horton Co.
Thirty-three Years Raleigh's Leading Clothiers

Snider-Fletcher Co.
WATCHES, DIAMONDS, AND JEWELRY
110 W. MAIN ST. DURHAM, N. C.

• Flowers for all Occasions
DURHAM FLORAL NURSERY

Chapel Hill Agents: EUBANKS DRUG COMPANY

Paris Theatre
DURHAM, N. C.
ARTCRAFT-PARAMOUNT PICTURES
Orchestra Orchestra

Broadway Theatre
DURHAM, N. C.
THE HOUSE OF SPECIAL PILOTO PLAY ATTRAC-TIONS

Eubanks Drug Co.
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.
Agents for Nunnally's Candies

THE ALUMNI REVIEW

—Chas. A. Hines, Law '08, Greensboro attorney, has been elected president of the recently organized Civitan Club of Greensboro. Other alumni who are charter members of this club are: H. B. Gunter, '08, vice-president of the Southern Life and Trust Co.; C. R. Wharton, '12, attorney; G. B. Phillips, '13, principal of the Greensboro high school; Dr. J. W. Tankersley, '04, physician; T. R. Foust, '92, county superintendent of schools; and T. Moody Stroud, '02, dry goods merchant.

1909

O. C. Cox, Secretary,
Greensboro, N. C.

—J. H. Little is with the General Electric Co., at Charlotte. He lives at 509 N. Graham St. He registered while in the University from Pinetops.

—Dr. N. B. Cannady practices medicine at Laurinburg. He served overseas as a captain in the medical corps with the 80th Division.

—Chas. D. McIver is engaged in the cotton business at Greensboro with the firm of J. E. Latham and Co.

—J. H. McLain is now engaged in the practice of law at Gastonia. He has been located previously at Charlotte and at Union Springs, Ala.

—The engagement of Miss Winifred Watkins Cousin, of Danville, Va., and Mr. Burney Simeon Warren, of Greenville, Phar. '09, has been announced. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

—The engagement of Miss Frances Brack and Mr. Joseph Graham Fitz Simons has been announced, and the wedding will take place in November at San Francisco, where Miss Brack lives. Mr. Fitz Simons is president and general manager of the Carolinas Auto Supply House, Charlotte, one of the largest jobbers of automotive equipment in the south. In the World War Mr. Fitz Simons was in aviation service as first lieutenant.

1910

J. R. NIXON, Secretary,
Edenton, N. C.

—M. S. Beam, superintendent of the Newton schools, was married during the summer.

—E. B. Beasley is cashier of the Bank of Fountain, at Fountain.

—R. D. Eames is an official of the Eames-Luckett Corporation, distributors of U. S. official pictures of the World War, with headquarters at 155 E. Superior St., Chicago, Ill.

—B. F. Taylor is president of the firm of B. F. Taylor and Co., wholesale grocers of Maxton. He has been married five years and has two children, a boy and a girl. Will be glad to see any of the old timers when they pass through Maxton.

—Rev. and Mrs. Hoke Ramsour are on leave of absence from their posts as missionaries to Liberia and are visiting at Mr. Ramsour's home in China Grove. Mr. Ramsour has been in Liberia for two years and Mrs. Ramsour has been a medical missionary there for six years. They will go back the first of the year.

1911

I. C. MOSER, Secretary,
Asheboro, N. C.

—Capt. John E. Wood, U. S. A., is engineer commissioner for the District of Columbia, with residence at 1014 16th St. N. W., Washington, D. C. He has charge of all engineering projects in the District.

—Dr. John Warton Harris and Miss Margaret Ivey were married on September 14 in Raleigh. They live in Baltimore. Dr. Harris is in the faculty of the medical school of Johns Hopkins University.

—J. Allen Austin, High Point lawyer and a representative of Guilford County in the House of the N. C. Legislature, has been endorsed by the Democratic executive committee of High Point township for the nomination for solicitor of the 12th judicial district.

—W. M. Parsley has bought the interest of John F. Durham, '18, in the Charlotte Wagon and Auto Co., and is now vice-president and treasurer of this company. Mr. Parsley was formerly actively identified with the group of mills at Spindale, which are under the general management of Kenneth Tanner. He retains his interest in the Spindale mills but is located at Charlotte.

—Rev. L. Harding Hughes, '11, and his father, Dr. N. C. Hughes, are headmasters of a preparatory school for boys, recently founded at Raleigh, styled the Saint Nicholas School. Dr. Hughes was formerly headmaster of the Trinity School at Chocowinity. Rev. Harding Hughes served for several years as chaplain of St. George's School, Newport, R. I. Prospects for the new preparatory school have been pronounced good.

1912

J. C. LOCKHART, Secretary,
Raleigh, N. C.

—Thos. B. Slade, of Hamilton, is engaged in farming and merchandising. He was married recently.

—Luke Lamb has been named by Commissioner A. D. Watts as chief of deputies in the State department of revenue at Raleigh.

—C. R. Thomas is editor and manager of the Professional Engineer, a magazine published by the American Association of Engineers at 63 Adams St., Chicago, Ill. This magazine has 28,000 subscribers.

—To the list of Carolina editors, published last spring in the ALUMNI REVIEW, should be added the name of Rev. Frederick B. Drane, Episcopal missionary at Nenana, Alaska. Mr. Drane is editor and publisher of The Alaskan Churchman, "published quarterly at Nenana in the interest of the church's work in Alaska." Mr. Drane edits the "farthest north" publication in North America, perhaps in the world. Mr. Drane is now on leave at his home in Edenton. Upon his return to Alaska he will take the place of archdeacon, made vacant by the death of Archdeacon Stuck.

1913

A. L. M. WIGGINS, Secretary,
Hartsville, S. C.

—Two members of the class of 1913 have entered the banking field and both have achieved success: Thos. H. Norwood as cashier of the National Bank of Goldsboro, and George Carmichael as cashier of the Commercial and Savings Bank of Franklinton.

—The class of 1913 came prominently to the front in the medical examinations held in Raleigh in July, when Dr. Wm. A. Kirksey took first place and Dr. Ernest H. Alderman carried off second place. Dr. Kirksey is practicing medicine at Oxford and Dr. Alderman is in hospital service. Of further interest to alumni is the fact that Dr. R. C. Mitchell, '17, of Mount Airy, won third place in the examinations.

1914

OSCAR LEACH, Secretary,
Rauford, N. C.

—D. G. Kelly is engaged in the life insurance business in Wilmington.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Worth, who have made their home in Wilmington for several years, have moved to Durham, where Mr. Worth is engaged in business.

—Capt. H. W. Collins, Engineer Corps, U. S. A., visited the Hill in August. Capt. Collins, who served overseas in the 77th Division, is stationed at Camp Dix, N. J.

1915

D. L. BELL, Secretary,
Pittsboro, N. C.

—Major Thomas Smith and Miss Nettie Dixon were married recently in Greensboro. They live at Reidsville. Mr. Smith practices law and is secretary of the Reidsville chamber of commerce.

—Edward Yates Keesler and Miss Anne Dewey Chambers, both of Charlotte, will be married in the early fall. Mr. Keesler is associated with his father in the building and loan business in Charlotte. He saw eighteen months service overseas as captain of field artillery.

1921

C. W. PHILLIPS, Secretary,
Greensboro, N. C.

—Members of the class of '21 will please send to C. W. Phillips, Secretary, 406 Tate St., Greensboro, information as to their present whereabouts and activities. This information should be sent at an early date.

—John Shaw and Lee Gregory are studying law at Harvard. They room together.

—W. R. Berryhill is teaching in Baird's School for Boys, Charlotte.

—W. H. Bobbitt is connected with a law firm in Charlotte. He will continue his reading of law there.

—Donnell Van Noppen is teaching mathematics in the Burlington high school.

—A. G. Griffin is principal of the Advance high school.

—LeGette Blythe is in the faculty of the Greensboro high school.

—Sihon Cieero Ogburn, Jr., and Miss Bessie Mae Bell were married in June at Raleigh.

—A. C. Lineberger, Jr., is with the Aberfoyl Mfg. Co., at Chester Pa. He is studying the mercerizing business.

1922

—Jay Bivens has located at Gastonia where he is engaged in the practice of law.

NECROLOGY

1857

—Colonel Cadwallader Polk, A.B. 1857, died at Helena, Ark., July 9 in his 84th year. Col. Polk, who registered at the University from Columbia, Tenn., saw service in the Confederate armies, holding the rank of colonel. He was a nephew of Bishop and Lieutenant General Leonidas Polk, of the class of 1825, and a cousin of President James K. Polk, of the class of 1818. Col. Polk located in Arkansas as a planter at the close of the Civil War, and became one of the best-known men of eastern Arkansas. He spent his last years at Helena.

1860

—Major Charles Haigh, A.B. 1860, died July 16 at his home in Fayetteville, aged 81 years. Major Haigh saw service throughout the Civil War, starting at the battle of Bethel. He became lieutenant colonel in Confederate service. Following the surrender at Appomattox, Major Haigh returned to his home city, Fayetteville, and established the hardware business, which he conducted to the day of his death.

1861

—Joseph Clinch Bellamy, A.B. 1861, died at Whitakers December 3 in his 81st year. Mr. Bellamy was in Confederate service as an ordnance sergeant. He settled down to the life of a planter at the close of the war. He was a member of the State Senate in 1895 and was a member of the board of directors of the State hospital from 1895 until 1901.

1862

—Judge Adolphus Leigh Fitzgerald, A.B. 1862, of Eureka, Nevada, died August 31 at the home of his son in Boston, Mass., 80 years of age. After his graduation Judge Fitzgerald entered the army of the Confederacy and, following the close of the war, he moved to Nevada. Soon after locating in Nevada, he was appointed circuit judge and afterwards was elected a member of the Supreme Court of Nevada and eventually became chief justice of this court. At the time of his death he was dean of the supreme consistory, 33 degree Scottish Rite Masons, southern jurisdiction. He was a native of Rockingham County.

Judge Tim Ervin Cooper, one year behind Judge Fitzgerald, in the class of 1863, a native of Mississippi, became chief justice of the Supreme Court of Mississippi. Judge Walter Clark, of the same college generation, class of 1864, is chief justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina. Judge Augustus Van Wyk, of New York, also a member of the class of 1864, achieved distinction on the New York Supreme Court bench.

—Colonel John Wetmore Hinsdale, A.B. 1861 as 1862, died September 15 at his home in Raleigh, 78 years of age. In the Civil War Col. Hinsdale served on the staff of General Pettigrew and later became colonel of the 72nd Regiment of North Carolina troops. At the time of his death he was the ranking officer of N. C. troops. Col. Hinsdale had a long and noted career at the bar and had been for some years Raleigh's oldest lawyer as well as the only survivor of the famous Raleigh bar which included such figures as Judge George Strong and Bartholomew F. Moore. He was a former president of the N. C. Bar Association. His son, J. W. Hinsdale, Jr., was graduated from the University in 1900.

1863

—Capt. Edwin R. Outlaw died August 19 at his home in Elizabeth City, aged 81 years. Capt. Outlaw was a student in the University in 1859-60. He served through the Civil War with the rank of captain in Confederate service. He settled down as a planter in Bertie county when the war was over, and later moved to Elizabeth City. His son, A. B. Outlaw, is an alumnus of the University, class of 1914.

1866

—A. Ferdinand Johnson, A.B. 1911 as 1866, died May 5 at his home in Clinton, 76 years of age. Mr. Johnson left the University to enlist in Confederate service. When the war was over he located in Clinton, where he was held always in highest esteem, and where he was engaged in the mercantile business and in banking until the time of his death. F. B. Johnson, his son, was graduated from the University in 1897.

1868

—Judge Thomas Alexander McNeill, A.B. 1868, died August 2 at Lumberton, 79 years of age. Judge McNeill, a veteran of the Civil War, lived a long life of usefulness to his section and his State, and was one of Robeson County's most distinguished sons. He was judge of Superior Court from 1896 to 1904, and was first president of the National Bank of Lumberton. His son, T. A. McNeill, Jr., is an alumnus of the University, class of 1906.

1889

—Richard Burton McLaughlin died on December 2 at his home in Statesville, 56 years of age. He was a student of law in the University in 1888-89. He located in Statesville after receiving his license and was engaged in the practice of law there until the time of his death. He was a member of the State Senate in 1893 and again in 1903.

1892

—Robert Strange MacRae died at his home in Chapel Hill July 24, 73 years of age. Mr. MacRae was a special student in the University in 1891-92. He had been for many years a well-known and well-beloved Chapel Hill figure. Early in the Wilson administration he became postmaster and was holding this office at the time of his death. Chapel Hill's handsome new postoffice came about largely through his work and influence. All of his sons are alumni of the University: Lawrence, of Greensboro; Cameron, of Concord; Don, of Thomasville; and Robert, Jr., of San Francisco.

1895

—James Norfleet Pruden died July 23 at his home in Edenton, 48 years of age. Mr. Pruden was a student in the academic department of the University in 1891-92, 1892-93, 1893-94, and he studied law in 1894-95. He practiced law continuously in Edenton after leaving the University. He had been for a number of years chairman of the board of school commissioners of Edenton and in this capacity had performed noteworthy service for his town and section. His daughter, Miss Lina Pruden, is a member of the class of 1922 in the University.

1898

—Walter Rice Thompson, B.S. 1898, died in the prime of his manhood on September 20 at his home in Winston-Salem, aged 46 years. Mr. Thompson entered the school profession after his gradu-

THE ALUMNI REVIEW

tion in 1898 and was a school official at Concord first and later at Greensboro. In 1908 he became the first superintendent of the Stonewall Jackson Training School at Concord. In 1914 he resigned this superintendency and became superintendent of the Methodist Children's Home at Winston-Salem, a connection which he retained until his death. Mr. Thompson achieved splendidly at everything to which he put his hand and his big, cheerful, strong influence is missed in many quarters. His son, Winbourne Thompson, is a student in the University, class of 1924.

1900

—William Jasper Christian, Jr., died September 1 at Durham. He was a student in the law school of the University in 1899-00.

1901

—Curtis Marley Muse, lawyer of Carthage and one time member of the State Senate, died September 8 at his home. Mr. Muse was a student in the law school of the University in 1899-00. During the war he was a special attorney for the Department of Justice.

1908

—Anna Hartwell Lewis died on March 15. She was a graduate student in the University in 1907-08 and was a native of Goldsboro.

1910

—Dr. Oscar Eason, M.D. 1910, died June 29 at Goldsboro, where he had been engaged for several years in the practice of medicine.

1912

—Randall Avera Winston, merchant of Warrenton, died on August 28 at Roanoke, Va., 28 years of age. He was a student in the law school of the University in 1911-12.

1915

—Miss Alma Kornegay, formerly a resident of Chapel Hill, died on November 15. She was a student in the class of 1915 for one year.

1917

—Thomas Richard Dale died September 4 at the public health hospital, Tucson, Arizona. He saw service overseas as a member of Battery B, 329th Field Artillery. He contracted tuberculosis while in service and never recovered. His home was at Morganton. Interment was at Arlington with full military honors.

1918

—Mrs. Irene Graves Hanks died November 20. She was a student in the law school of the University in 1917-18.

—Thomas Battle Williams died on September 3 in St. Louis, aged 26 years. He was a student in the law school of the University in 1916-17. In the World War he saw infantry service overseas and lately had been a student of journalism in the University of Missouri.

1923

—Jesse Willis Grainger died at New Bern on August 7, death coming as the result of an automobile accident. He was a student in the University in 1919-20 and 1920-21.

—James Marion Parrott, Jr., died on August 6 at New Bern, death resulting from an automobile accident. He had been a student in the University for the past two years, a member of the class of 1923.

JUSTICE W. R. ALLEN

—Associate Justice William Reynold Allen died September 7 at his home in Goldsboro. Not an alumnus of the University himself, Judge Allen had been for the past two summers a lecturer before the Summer Law School, and he was throughout his life a strong friend and supporter of the University, both inside and outside of legislative halls. Judge Allen practiced law in Goldsboro for a period of years, became judge of Superior Court, and in 1910 was elected to a justiceship on the Supreme Court bench. W. R. Allen, Jr., his son, is an alumnus of the University, class of 1918. O. H. Allen, Jr., his second son, is a member of the class of 1923.

Culture Scholarship Service Self-Support
 THE
 North Carolina College for Women

Offers to Women a Liberal Education, Equipment for Womanly Service, Professional Training for Remunerative Employment

The College offers four groups of studies leading to the following degrees: Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Music.

Special courses in Pedagogy; in Manual Arts; in Domestic Science; Household Art and Economics; in Music; and in the Commercial Branches.

Teachers and graduates of other colleges provided for in both regular and special courses.

Equipment modern, including furnished dormitories, library, laboratories, literary society halls, gymnasium, music rooms, teachers' training school, infirmary, model laundry, central heating plant, and open air recreation grounds.

Dormitories furnished by the State. Board at actual cost. Tuition free to those who pledge themselves to become teachers.

Fall Term Opens in September

Summer Term Begins in June

For catalogue and other information, address

JULIUS I. FOUST, President, GREENSBORO, N. C.

Let Fatima smokers tell you

Ask the newspaper men

In the Press Box at the World's Series, or "covering" important political events, or running down the day's news—notice how many of these "go-getters" are Fatima "fans."

"Nothing else will do"

FATIMA

CIGARETTES

TWENTY for 25c—but taste the difference

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Use Your Spare Time

Increase your efficiency by studying at home

The University of North Carolina

Offers Eighteen Courses by Mail

ECONOMICS
EDUCATION

ENGLISH HISTORY

LATIN
MATHEMATICS

SOCIOLOGY

The University is particularly anxious to serve former students of the University and colleges who have been forced to give up study before receiving the bachelor's degree. The correspondence courses this year are adapted to the needs of such students and teachers. All courses offered count toward the A.B. Tell your friends about these courses.

Write today for full information to

BUREAU OF CORRESPONDENCE INSTRUCTION UNIVERSITY EXTENSION DIVISION
CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

THE ROYALL & BORDEN CO.

Corner West Main and Market Streets

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

Sell all kinds of furniture and furnishings for churches, colleges and homes. Biggest stock of Rugs in the State, and at cheapest prices. ¶If you don't know us ask the College Proctor or the editor of the "Review." Call on or write for whatever you may need in our line.

THE ROYALL & BORDEN CO.

Your Successor

How will the successor to your fortune conserve it?

You made many mis-steps in investing, particularly in your younger days. But for them your fortune would be larger. Will your successor repeat?

Here is a suggestion; think it over:

Give your successor a good investment training now. Establish an acquaintance with safe counsel and proper methods. This will avail much after your demise.

The way to accomplish this is to employ the "Wachovia Trust Plan" for creating, by installments, an independent estate for your successor, and let him or her attend to details in connection therewith.

This plan will serve a double purpose: It will create a fortune that might otherwise not materialize; and it will insure permanency of its benefits to your successor.

WACHOVIA BANK AND TRUST CO.

Capital and Surplus $2,000,000.00

Member Federal Reserve System

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

ASHEVILLE

SALISBURY

HIGH POINT

VOL. X, No. 2

NOVEMBER, 1921

The

Alumni Review

The University of North Carolina

PRESIDENT CHASE AND MAJOR GRAHAM HEAD THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

CAROLINA CELEBRATES HER 128th BIRTHDAY

ALUMNI SEND GREETINGS TO ALMA MATER

SUMMER BALL AND ATHLETIC ELIGIBILITY

MANY ASSOCIATIONS HOLD MEETINGS

Murphy's Hotel

Richmond, Virginia

*THE most modern, largest and best located Hotel in Richmond, being on direct
car line to all Railroad
Depots.*

*THE only Hotel in the city
with a garage attached. . . .*

Headquarters for Carolina
Business Men

JAMES T. DISNEY, President

OPERATED ON EUROPEAN
PLAN

The Big Thing In College

as in life is THE START.
Start off with a life insurance policy. It is no longer a luxury but a necessity to the college man.

FIRST: Place protection on your life while you are young and able to get it.

SECOND: Insure your education.

THIRD: Create early
the habit of saving.

You have faith in your
State and its enterprises. Well, keep your business at home, and insure with

The
University Agency, Inc.
JEFFERSON STANDARD LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANY

J. W. Umstead, Jr., Pres.
W. H. Andrews, Jr., Sec. and Treas.

AGENTS

B. C. Brown	I. H. Butt
J. D. Dorsett	P. A. Reavis, Jr.
W. D. Harris

"Individual Service to Carolina Men"

WHY NOT MAKE YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO
THE ALUMNI LOYALTY FUND

By means of an Endowment Insurance Policy? The volume of "bequest insurance" is growing by leaps and bounds. It's the safest and surest way of making a bequest. Policies from $250 to $50,000 may be had in the

Southern Life and Trust Company

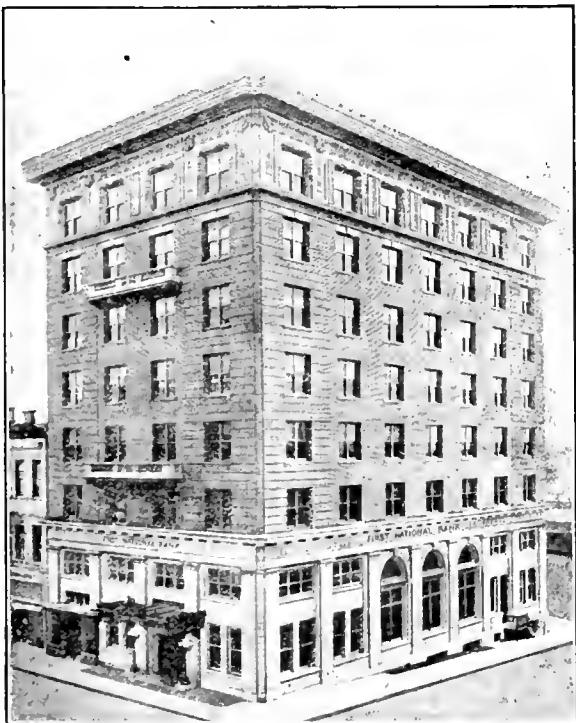

HOME OFFICE

"The Multiple Line Company"

GREENSBORO, N. C.

CAPITAL $1,000,000.00

The First National Bank

OF DURHAM

A large, up-to-date banking institution privileged to be of State-wide service, always at the disposal of the University of North Carolina, its faculty, student-body and alumni in the transaction of their banking matters.

JULIAN S. CARR, President

W. J. HOLLOWAY, Vice President

CLATBORN M. CARR, Vice President

SOUTHGATE JONES, Cashier

W. J. BROGDEN, Attorney

CAPITAL, SURPLUS AND PROFITS, $1,100,000
RESOURCES OVER $6,000,000

